IX-1-6 Albert PALMER (William,[VIII-23-7] John,[7] John,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on June 14, 1831 in Warner, Merrimack County, New Hampshire. He was left an orphan at six years of age, and at the age of thirteen began life's struggle alone. He received what little education was available in Warner and was a man of mature years long before he reached his majority. He removed to Newark, New Jersey about 1846, as a young man, where he laid the foundation of his successful business career as editor and proprietor of a trade paper known as the U. S. Journal. Later, he started the North American Miscellany, of which Donald G. Mitchell -- "Ik Marvel" -- was editor. As a literary work it was a success, but his early struggles forced him to contend with the stern realities of life, and he had little disposition and less time to experiment with the sentimental.

He married on May 27, 1852 at the Alling homestead, in Newark, Cornelia Meigs Alling, born on March 13, 1833 in New York City, daughter of Stephen Ball Alling and Jane H. Wier of Lyons Farms, Newark, New Jersey. Stephen Ball Alling was the founder of the well-known jewelry firm of Alling Bros. & Co. and a descendant of Roger Alling, who, at the settlement of the New Haven Colony, in 1639, signed the compact.

Albert eventually gave up his literary publications and devoted all his energies to the development of a scheme for free distribution of advertising papers, which has since been so universally adopted and of which he was the originator. After firmly establishing his business in New York, he removed to Chicago about 1860 where he carried on a large business for five or six years and became a large property holder. He returned to New York soon after the close of the Civil War and developed new ideas in the publishing and advertising business. He also purchased a beautiful estate at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, Orange County, New York, which he named "Cliffside", and here, with his family, he spent some of the happiest years of his life, and enjoyed that rest which a long life of toil and labor necessitated. He was interested in the religious affairs of that locality and was an elder in the Presbyterian Church of Cornwall. His principal business was the publication of Palmer's Buyer, which attained a large circulation, both in this country and in Europe, and necessitated the establishing of a branch house in England, which for many years was under the management of his five sons. In 1878 the business was incorporated under the name of the Albert Palmer Company which was located at 222 Fulton Street in New York City, and attained a world-wide reputation. He was the pioneer in this line of publishing business, which many other firms have since adopted.

In the early winter of 1881, he removed with his family to East Orange, Essex County, New Jersey, and purchased the beautiful residence of Judge Whiting, at 57 Harrison Street, where he spent a portion of each year, until his death in 1893. He continued, however, to spend his summers at Cornwall.

Albert Palmer was a public-spirited, progressive citizen, and contributed liberally to whatever was of public benefit. He was a staunch Republican and while interested in the success of his party he had no desire to hold public office. While possessing great enterprise as manifested by his life, he showed great caution before embarking in any undertaking; but when, after full deliberation, he determined upon his course, he followed it with unyielding persistency. He was a man of great kindness of feeling, liberal to an extreme, and heartily interested in whatever was of benefit to his fellow-men. He was strongly attached to home and family. He was a warm, devoted friend, and regarded with the utmost fidelity and obligations which friendship imposes. He had a high sense of honor, and was scrupulously honest and conscientious in his business relations, accepting always the "golden rule" as his guide. He was a man of great force, persistency and earnestness, of strong will power and active intellect. He was in every sense of the word a manly man.

Albert died on November 24, 1893 at his home in East Orange. His widow, Cornelia, died on December 31, 1903 at her home in East Orange.

IX-1-11 Alice Alta PALMER (Joel,[VIII-10-15] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on June 17, 1871 at the Palmer homestead east of Golden City, Jefferson County, Colorado Territory. Alice spent her childhood years at the Palmer homestead. She married on October 11, 1892 in Golden, James Henry "Doc" Son, born on January 7, 1863 in Enon, Missouri, son of Granville Son and Catherine Harris.

"Doc" Son was one of the early peddlers of Golden City who marketed his products directly from his truck farm located in the lush Clear Creek Valley east of Golden between North and South Table Mountains. He primarily raised vegetables and fruit. As soon as his children were old enough to do so, they were assigned the task of tying freshly picked tender carrots and beets in small bunches. The next morning, "Doc" Son would load his flat bed wagon covered with a wet canvas to keep the vegetables crisp and fresh and take off for town, ringing his bell to call his customers. On occasions when a friend came to stay overnight, it was understood he would help bunch the vegetables for the following day. Alta and "Doc" resided in Golden their entire lives.

"Doc" died on June 6, 1948 in Golden. Alta died on February 18, 1964 in Golden. Both are buried in the Golden Cemetery in Golden.

IX-1-17 Alvin Donald PALMER (Franklin,[VIII-6-8] Enoch,[7] Enoch,[6] Jacob,[5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on April 12, 1896 at the homestead near Lamartine, Fond du Lac County, Wisconsin. He went with his parents to the village of Lamartine after 1900 where he spent the remainder of his childhood years and receiving his education in the Lamartine and Fond du Lac schools. He served in World War I with the Wisconsin 331st Field Artillery in France as a private first class. He served from October 2, 1917 to February 20, 1919. An interesting story appeared in the Centennial History of Lamartine Township of 1940 describing his experience taken from his diary, ie:

"As I did not see any action at the front my service in the army was just an experience which proved to be an education in many ways. There was always that feeling of uncertainty of the future, from Oct. 2, 1917, the day I became a member of the 331st Field Artillery at Camp Grant.

A regular training schedule was followed after we had received the third and last shot of inoculation and vaccination. The men were instructed on how to mount and dismount wooden horses and fire guns made out of old wagon wheels and timbers, because of the shortage of equipment.

On May 1, 1918 the orders came that we were to hike to Sparta, Wis. We left May 14, on the first lap of our journey. We went by way of Rockford, Beloit, Madison, Poynette, and Kilbourne, through hailstorms, cyclones, rain, mud and sunny weather. On May 28 after the long and tedious hike we reached Camp Robinson. It was a long hard summer but later experience proved to us that it wasn't half bad.

On Sept. 5 our train pulled out of Camp Robinson and we started our twelve hundred mile trip to Camp Mills, Long Island, by way of Canada and Niagara Falls, N.Y., and on Sept. 17 we sailed for "Over There" on the British transport the "Lapland." In our convoy were twelve transports, a battleship, an armored cruiser, a torpedo boat, destroyer, and a dirigible.

As the Statue of Liberty finally vanished we gazed upon a level horizon, unobstructed by any obstacle of man's devising. It was a perfect day, as to breeze and sunshine, and our boat threw the miles cut behind her though she had to zig-zag her way across the ocean, to keep out of the path of submarines. After an uneventful voyage we arrived at Liverpool, Sunday, Sept. 29.

We rested a day at Camp Knotty Ash before starting our journey through England which was a most interesting trip. Every antique farm house, and moss covered cottage was a picture; there was beauty in all the landscape. We arrived at Romsey and hiked to Camp Woodley which was only a short distance, and after staying there two days marched twelve miles to Southampton and crossed the English Channel during the night. (Many were seasick for the channel was rough.) we landed at Cherbourg, France on Oct. 5th, from there we started our first trip in French box cars which had a capacity of eight horses or forty men, each car having a sign which read "Hommes 40, Chevaux 8." We reached Camp Hunt at La Courneace, about fifty miles southwest of Bordeaux, France, on October 9th. Here we were to go through a six week's course of training which would fit us for active service at the front.

During all this time the war had been progressing favorably for the Allies. A tension was felt about camp, and we eagerly awaited news each morning. Finally on November 11, 1918 about two o'clock in the afternoon a Frenchman came dashing in on a bicycle with the glorious news that Germany had signed an armistice.

On December 20th we were packed on small French box cars, to leave Camp Hunt, and its "mud." Traveling was slow, we were on the train four hours and traveled forty miles. We finally reached Camp De Souge and left on December 24th to hike twenty-three miles to Camp Genicart.

Christmas Day we were allowed to rest and get over the hike and sore feet. The next day we went through the "delousing" mill. Our stay at this camp was longer than any of us then expected.

On January 18 we marched to Bordeaux and were put on box cars and after a two day trip we reached Marseilles. On January 20th we went on board the Italian liner "Duca d'Aosta." On the morning of January 23rd we pulled into Gibraltar Bay. The rock of Gibraltar is a beautiful sight. As we passed out through the Straits we could see the lights of some African City.

On our homeward trip we encountered a very rough sea and the boat rocked considerably causing many to rush to the rail. I was in quarantine for the mumps for the remainder of the trip to New York. After sixteen days we sighted the most welcome of sights, the Statue of Liberty. On February 5th we unloaded at New York and were ferried to Jersey City and boarded a "real" train with seats and cushions. We arrived at Camp Merritt, New Jersey and after five days, during which time we passed through the "delousing mill" to get rid of cooties which we never had until we went into the "mill" at Bordeaux, we entrained for Camp Grant.

In Chicago we paraded up Michigan Avenue. The whole regiment was assembled at Hotel La Salle and given a fine dinner. We arrived at Camp Grant that evening. The final week was spent there, where our Battery came into existence, and on February 20th we received our honorable discharge and two days later on Washington's birthday 1919 we found the 331st Field Artillery a dream of the past but a spirit that will live forever."

---- A. D. Palmer,
First Class Private

After his discharge from the army, he took up farming in the village of Lamartine. He married on June 15, 1922 in Oakfield, Fond du Lac County, Alta Alma Bennett, born on October 12, 1894 in Oakfield, daughter of Homer Westly Bennett and Almira Holmes Gibson.

On May 23, 1955, Alvin and his son George, were blasting and removing tree stumps from their land. One of the fuses appeared to have malfunctioned and while Alvin was bending over the stump to detect the problem, the dynamite charge accidentally exploded, killing Alvin instantly. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America (M.W.A.) and was master of the Lamartine Grange. He was also a member of the Lamartine Methodist church.

Alta Alma Palmer served as Lamartine correspondent for the Commonwealth Reporter for some 30 years. She was very active in civic matters, being a member of the Lamartine Federated Women's Club, Lamartine Grange and Fond du Lac County Pomona Grange. She was also secretary of the Lamartine Cemetery Association and was cancer chairperson for the town of Lamartine for over 30 years. She was a member of the Lamartine United Methodist Church, Women's Society of Christian Services and Sunday School superintendent for many years.

Alta Alma Palmer died on December 26, 1970 at St. Agnes Hospital in Fond du Lac. Both she and Alvin are buried in the Lamartine Cemetery

IX-3-2 Carl PALMER (Joseph,[VIII-10-39] Samuel,[7] Joseph,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on January 12, 1873 in Troy Township, Whitley County, Indiana. He spent his childhood years on the family farm in Troy Township. At age 17, after the loss of his widowed mother in 1890, he continued to live on the family farm with his older brothers and sisters. He is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Troy Township, as head of household, living with his two sisters, Sarah and Annette.

He married on September 19, 1906 in Columbia City, Whitley County, Carrie V. A. Wickliffe, born on August 14, 1885, probably in Troy Township, daughter of George Joseph Wickliffe and Arena Baker. He first lived in Etna along with his two sisters, Sarah and Annette. On February 9, 1907, Annette died and the following year Carl and his family moved back to the Palmer house in Troy Township. In 1916, Carl's older brother, Newton Almond and his family returned from Oklahoma, and Carl and his family had to move down to the tenant house on the north east corner of the Palmer farm and give the large house to Newton and his family.

Carl and his family moved to Etna where he worked in a grocery store and later was the "hired hand", full time, and helped manage the Tucker Farm, one of the largest and most successful farm operations in Whitley County. In 1921 or 1922, Carl and his family moved back to the old place where he lived until he retired.

Carrie died on April 13, 1942 at the Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Carl died on September 20, 1948 at the Lawton Sanatorium in Fort Wayne. Both are buried in the West Etna Cemetery in Troy Township.

IX-3-6 Catherine "Kit" Louisa PALMER (Joseph,[VIII-10-39] Samuel,[7] Joseph,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on November 1, 1859 in Troy Township, Whitley County, Indiana. During her adolescent years as a teenager, she met Leonides Marrs and became teen aged friends, and then lovers. Sometime during the latter part of 1878, she discovered that she was with child. When Leonides was told of this, he decided that he didn't want the responsibilities of being a husband and father and started thinking of ways to get himself out of this situation. He discussed the matter with his cousin Warren Marrs, age 26 and still single. It was reported that Leonides offered Warren fifty dollars if he would marry Catherine. The details were worked out and Warren agreed to take Catherine as his wife, but did not agree to take his cousin's child into his home.

Catherine and Warren were married on January 9, 1879, probably in Troy Township. Warren was born on August 1, 1852, probably in Troy Township, son of John Marrs and Fannie Goodrich. Catherine evidently went back to her mother's home to give birth to her first child, and then left her there for her mother and sisters to care for and raise. Then she went back to her husband Warren and raised a family of their own. They lived on the land which the Marrs family had bought upon coming to Indiana.

Warren died on November 4, 1925 in Troy Township, as a result of lockjaw which developed after he had injured his hand while working on his windmill. Catherine remained in the home until she died on May 2, 1934. Both are buried in the Adams Cemetery in East Troy Township.

IX-3-17 Charles Lewis PALMER

(Joel,VIII-10-15 William,7 Simon,6 Jonathan,5 Christopher,4 Samuel,3 Christopher,2 William 1)

Born on October 6, 1860 at the Palmer homestead east of Golden City, Arapahoe County in the Territory of Kansas. It has been reputed that Charles was the first white child born in Arapahoe County, four months after his parents arrived from Marshall County, Kansas and settled in the Golden area. He was born in a log cabin on the north bank of Clear Creek in Golden City. Charles spent his childhood years on the family farm which had been flourishing through its trade with the mountain mining towns, especially Georgetown where silver mining was at its peak. Charles and his brothers helped around the farm while their father Joel was delivering his goods to the mining towns.

Charles married on October 10, 1881 at the Baptist Church in Golden, Stephanie Fredericka Blatter, born on April 6, 1858 in Waltersburg, Pope County, Illinois, daughter of John Henry Blatter and Stephanie "Fannie" Boose. She went to Golden with her older sister, Louisa "Lue" Wolther in 1880. Charles and Stephanie or "Fannie" as she was known to her friends and relatives, lived in the old Owen's place just to the east of the Palmer farm and the old grout house. They purchased it from Eben T. Osborne. After two years, Charles and Fannie moved to Georgetown after he formed a partnership with his brother-in-law, Henry John Blatter. Charles opened a produce store in Georgetown where his father had been traveling and selling produce from his wagon. Henry remained on the Palmer farm in Golden and continued shipping the produce by train to Charles in Georgetown. Their business venture was known as "Blatter & Palmer, Georgetown, Colorado". The business was operative from about the summer of 1883 to July 1886 when Charles and Fannie lost their third child, Lewis Charles, due to "Cholera Infanta" also known as infant diarrhea. After the burial of their son, Charles and Fannie decided to move back to Golden where they built a two story farmhouse, east of the old farm. The produce store in Georgetown was sold to Kneissel and Anderson's Grocery Store. The Palmer's continued to supply produce for the store and Henry Blatter went to work there.

In late 1902 or early 1903, the home of Charles and Fannie burned down. Charles had started for the barn in the early morning to milk the cows when he saw the fire, but it was already to late and very little was saved. Charles built another house on the "Middle Golden Road" which was also known as West 32nd Avenue.

Charles and his father Joel had a large packing and shipping shed where vegetables and fruits were crated and weighed, and bills of freight were made out for shipment to the mountain towns in Jefferson, Gilpin and Clear Creek Counties. He gave a lot of attention to the planting of two orchards, with apple, plum, pear and peach trees. Finding that there would be a sale for hothouse vegetables, Charles built three greenhouses, 16 x 60 feet, in which he raised vegetables, principally lettuce and radishes, and it is said that he raised larger quantities of lettuce than anyone in the vicinity of Golden. The hothouses were kept at an even temperature by means of hot water pipes and was admirably fitted for the winter growing of vegetables.

Charles was connected with the Woodmen of the World and the Woodmen's Circle. He was a friend of the white metal and believed that silver should be restored to its proper standard. About 1906, Charles became a Commissioner for Jefferson County and served for two terms.

In 1919, Charles and Fannie were part of a caravan of four family cars on a trek to California. They left Golden and traveled to Pueblo for their first stop. They departed Pueblo on October 28, 1919 traveling south taking the route over Raton Pass, via Santa Fe, Albuquerque, Flagstaff, Needles and arriving at Camp Cajon, California on November 29th. They then proceeded to Glendora, California. After spending some time in California, other members of the party moved on to the San Francisco area and some left California on April 19, 1920 for the return trip to Colorado. Charles and Fannie had decided to remain in California, having turned their farm in Golden over to their daughter Mabel and her husband Charles Risdon. They moved to a new young community of Huntington Park for awhile and later moved to Redondo Beach. Sometime after 1923 they moved to Walteria which was not heavily populated at that time.

On April 27, 1935, Fannie died of nephritis in the Torrance Memorial Hospital at age 77 years. She was buried in the Golden Cemetery at Golden, Colorado. Charles returned to Golden to live with his widowed daughter Mabel. Charles was very knowledgeable in the history of the Golden area and on April 28, 1946, he was called upon to unveil a State Historical Society monument marking the site of old Arapahoe City which is located on the south side of West 44th Avenue about 500 yards west of McIntyre Street in Golden. Arapahoe City was a booming placer mining camp in 1858 and continued until about 1904. From here went George A. Jackman and John H. Gregory to make their historic gold discoveries near Idaho Springs and Central City. Arapahoe's population was 80 in 1860 when Charles Lewis Palmer was born. He also delighted in talking to children in the local schools about the early history of Arapahoe.

Charles died on February 3, 1953 at age 92 in the Denver Hospital and was buried next to his wife Fannie in the Golden Cemetery.

IX-3-23 Charlesetta "Etta" Maria PALMER (James,[VIII-10-8] James,[7] James,[6] James,[5] Samuel,[4] Richard,[3] Joseph,[2] William [1])

Born on July 12, 1844 in Haverhill, Essex County, Massachusetts. She married first, on January 31, 1861, probably in Haverhill, Andrew Francis Stowe, born in 1838 near Westboro or Worcester, Massachusetts, son of Henry D. and Ellen A. Stowe. Andrew was a shoemaker at the time of marriage. They first resided as boarders at the home of her parents at 36 Pecker Street in Haverhill. He started an upholstery shop at 26 Pecker Street in early 1861, repairing furniture, renovating and restuffing old mattresses and scraping and varnishing old furniture.

Andrew joined the Hale Guards of Haverhill on April 3, 1860 and was among the group in April 1861 when he went to war with the 5th Regiment, Massachusetts Infantry Volunteers. During the Civil War he enlisted as a private in April 1861 and was mustered into service on May 1, 1861, as a 90 day soldier, with Company "D", 5th Regiment, Massachusetts Infantry Volunteers (Haverhill Light Infantry). He participated in the first battle of Bull Run on July 21, 1861 in Virginia along with his father-in-law, James Monroe Palmer and William W. Mills, who later married Mary Caroline Palmer, older sister of Charlesetta. He was mustered out of service on July 31, 1861. After the war he continued his business as an upholsterer.

On September 9, 1861, Andrew had a very narrow escape from a serious burning in his shop. Apparently a lighted fluid lamp fell from a shelf and striking on the edge of a sink, was broken, spattering the fluid on him and instantly enveloped him in flames from head to foot. Fortunately several persons in the room immediately wrapped him in woolen carpets, extinguishing the flames without any serious injury, except to his left hand which was badly burned.

In September 1862, he was promoted to First or Orderly Sergeant as Company "G", 7th Massachusetts Volunteer Militia became Company "G", 50th Regiment, Massachusetts Infantry Volunteers. A notice appeared in the Tri-Weekly Publisher in Haverhill on October 7, 1862, viz:

> Military Election --- At a meeting of Co. G, 50th Rgt. M. V. held at Camp Stanton, Boxford, yesterday afternoon for the choice of a 2nd Lt., First Sgt., Andrew F. Stowe was elected to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Lieut. C. H. P. Palmer. Mr. Stowe has held the office of First Sgt. of the Company since its reorganization some weeks since, and performed its duties, we believe, to the general acceptance of all concerned, and we doubt not will be equally successful in the performance of his new duties.

Andrew spent two months in training at Camp Stanton in Boxford from September 12 to November 19, 1862. The regiment finally left Boxford for New Orleans on November 19th via New York and Philadelphia and then boarded a steamer for New Orleans. On May 15, 1863, he resigned his commission and returned home on June 7, 1863. An article in the Tri-Weekly Publisher of June 17, 1863 states, viz:

> 50th Regiment --- Lieut. A. F. Stowe of Co. G, 50th Rgt., who was discharged on account of having met with an accident, arrived home this morning from New Orleans, which place he left on the seventh instant. He reports no casualties in the 50th up to the time he left, except a wound to Charles H. Stickney, and Lt. Draper of Co. E who was shot in the head.

In 1865, he was listed as an upholsterer at 26 Main Street over Thompson's Express Office and was living at 2 Pautucket Street in Haverhill. He continued his upholstery business at different locations and on occasions was in partnership with other individuals in Haverhill until about May or June 1874 when he went to Washington, D. C. as the White House upholsterer. It is not certain if Charlesetta went with him to Washington, but what we do know is that their marriage was "on-the-rocks" and a divorce appeared to be imminent.

Charlesetta is listed in the 1880 Federal Census in Haverhill, as a seamstress and still married, living at 2 Pautucket Street with her children, Minnie C., age 13, Delia M., age 10 and Frank M. Stowe, age 8. She was living in the household of her parents, James Monroe and Mary A. Palmer. Charlesetta married second, probably in the 1880's, Charles O. Huntington, born about 1833 and who was a shoecutter. They were married outside of Haverhill. It was also his second marriage. Charles died on July 30, 1893 and is buried in the Linwood Cemetery in Haverhill.

Andrew F. Stowe died sometime before February 1902 at the Old Soldiers Home in Washington, D. C.

Charlesetta lived with her daughter, Minnie C. Miller in Haverhill during the latter part of her life and died suddenly on May 6, 1916 at her older sister's cottage at Hampton Beach, New Hampshire. She is buried in the Hilldale Cemetery in Haverhill.

IX-4-4 Daniel William PALMER (Joseph,[VIII-10-40] Joseph,[7] Joseph,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on October 20, 1837. Daniel William Palmer's obituary states that he was born in Vassalboro, Kennebec County, Maine. It is conceivable that Daniel was born in Vassalboro, after his parents went there from Newport, Waldo County, Maine for a short time before moving to Montville, Waldo County, Maine sometime before 1840.

Vassalboro is approximately 20 miles west of Montville. He is believed to be the one male, under 5, listed in the household of Joseph Palmer in the 1840 Census record of Montville, Maine. He is also listed in the 1850 Federal Census in Montville, age 12, living with his parents.

Daniel went to Minneapolis, Minnesota in 1856 and married on July 28, 1862 in Hopkins, Hennepin County, Minnesota, Emma Jane Woodard, born on August 5, 1846 in Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, daughter of Samuel Lock Woodard and Lowenza Derby.

During the Civil War he enlisted on August 15, 1864 and was mustered into service at Fort Snelling in Minneapolis, as a private, with Company "F", 11th Regiment, Minnesota Volunteer Infantry. The 11th Regiment was formed under the last call for arms by President Lincoln. Daniel's training began at Fort Snelling which lasted about one month and on September 20, 1864 he and his regiment marched from Fort Snelling to St. Paul where they were issued their weapons and eventually board the steamboat destined for the south. The trip began on uncovered barges on the Mississippi River toward La Crosse where they transferred to box cars and transported by rail to Chicago.

They waited about one week in Chicago for further orders and were then directed to proceed to Nashville where their main objective was to protect the Louisville & Nashville Railroad for thirty miles from the Kentucky line to Nashville. Company F was assigned to guard the "tunnel"' which was a point of particular importance due to its critical role in keeping the railroad operational. Daniel was probably involved in the only other significant event as word had been received that an attack was planned on the tunnel and subsequently 200 troops from Companies E, G and J were sent as reinforcements. The attack never materialized, however, and the 11th Regiment was never involved in combat. In the latter part of June 1865, the 11th Regiment was relieved of duty and on June 26, 1865, Daniel was discharged in Gallatin, Tennessee and mustered out of service on July 11, 1865 at Fort Snelling, Minnesota. He applied for a pension on November 2, 1907, due to lung trouble, liver complaint and rheumatism. He was described as five feet, ten inches tall, light complexion, blue eyes and brown hair.

Daniel resided in Minneapolis from July 11, 1865 to 1868; Transit, Bismarck Township, Sibley County from 1868 to 1902 and Winthrop, Sibley County from 1902 till the time of his death in 1910. He is listed in the 1870 Federal Census in Transit, Sibley County, as a farmer, living with his wife Emma, age 24 and children, William, age 6, Emma, age 4 and Minnie Palmer, age 2. He is listed in the 1880 Federal Census in Bismarck Township, as a farmer, living with his wife, Emma, age 33 and children, William, age 16, Emma, age 14, Minnie, age 12, Eva, age 9, Ida, age 7, Arthur, age 5, Edwin, age 2 and Addie Palmer, age 2 mos. He is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Bismarck Township, Sibley County, as a farmer, living with his wife, Emma, age 53 and children, William, age 36, as a farm laborer, Arthur, age 24, as a farm laborer, Edwin, age 22, as a farm laborer, Frank, age 17, as a farm laborer, Myrtle, age 9 and daughter Addie Marmorine, age 20. Also listed in the same household are Rosa Palmer, age 16, daughter-in-law, and William Woodard, age 57, brother-in-law, born in Massachusetts and listed as a farm laborer. Daniel is also listed in the 1910 Federal Census in Winthrop, Sibley County, as a retired farmer, age 73, living with his wife Emma, age 68 and children, Frank, age 27, as a laborer and Myrtle Palmer, age 19.

Daniel died on May 19, 1910 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Sundberg, in Winthrop, age 72 years, 6 months, 29 days. His widow, Emma, died on January 13, 1921 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Rick in West Winthrop. Both are buried in the family plot in the Winthrop First Evangelical Lutheran Church Cemetery in Winthrop.

IX-5-26 Eugenia Amanda "Jennie" PALMER (Truman,VIII-20-4 Isaac,7 John,6 Jonathan,5 Christopher,4 Samuel,3 Christopher 2, William 1)

Born on October 27, 1864 at Ellis Landing in San Pablo, Contra Costa County, California. Eugenia Amanda was known to her family and friends as "Jennie" and spent her childhood years at the family home in the farming community of El Rancho de San Pablo. Jennie's uncle George Barrett and his wife Annette "Net" wanted to adopt her and for a time kept her with them in their large house in Oakland, where they had moved in 1875 from the San Pablo ranch home. She eventually became homesick for her own folks as time passed on. During the summer of 1878 when Jennie was 13 years old, a young man drove up in a spring wagon from San Pablo to deliver some goods to the Barretts. He was about 25 years old, short of stature, with light, slightly yellowish hair, twinkling eyes of a very bright blue and good features that were somehow distinctly Irish. In the tradition of good country hospitality, Aunt Net told Jennie to give the young man something to eat, but on the porch. Jennie did so, but was angry at her snobbish aunt. She felt that if the young man had been good enough to deliver the packages, then he was good enough to eat inside the kitchen and not on the porch. She rushed upstairs and packed her bag, told her astonished aunt she was going to leave, and then asked the young man to please take her to her home in San Pablo, which he did. She learned that his name was Billy Duffy, and that he was working on the farm of her uncle by marriage, Agostino Byrone.

Billy Duffy was very popular and well known in the town of San Pablo, and as Jennie grew up, she met him at dances and hayrides. They were both beautiful dancers, and the townspeople enjoyed watching them when they stepped out on the floor. It wasn't soon after when Jennie was 19 years old and Billy was 31, that they married on February 6, 1884 in San Pablo. William Joseph "Billy" Duffy was born on October 28, 1852 in the village of Lansingburg, Rensselaer County, New York, son of Philip Duffy and Sarah Ellen Healy who were both of Irish birth. Lansingburg Village later became part of Troy, New York.

Jennie and Billy lived first in a cottage on the main street in San Pablo. Later they took over 40 acres of the large Emeric Ranch, which they farmed for eight years. For a few months they lived at the Byrone Ranch, then moved to a house on the road to Berkeley, but still within the limits of San Pablo.

William Duffy was also a judge in San Pablo and had become a very close friend of Henry Alvarado, son of Governor Juan Bautista Alvarado. Judge Duffy encouraged Henry to study law, and lent him his law books. Later, Henry became District Attorney of the county and still later, Judge of the Superior Court. At one time Judge Duffy ran for County Tax Collector on the Democratic Ticket, but was not elected. He was a member of the Blue Lodge of the Masons in Martinez.

In the summer of 1895, Judge Duffy got a job at San Quentin Penitentiary on the guard line. In October, his family joined him at San Quentin and they resided in a house outside the gates. William later became Chief Steward, and the family moved to the officer's quarters inside the gates.

William Duffy died in 1931 in San Rafael and Jennie died October 30, 1940 at San Quentin shortly after her son Clinton Truman Duffy became warden of the penitentiary.

According to the 1900 Census, Ella E. Palmer was the mother of three children, but only two were living as of June 5, 1900. She is also listed as being born in March 1860, but her gravestone shows "1855". Also listed in the same household is Amy M. Blake, born in January 1870 in Maine, age 30, single, listed as a bookkeeper and sister of Ella Palmer. (Amy and Ella were half-sisters).

Fairfield is listed in the 1910 Federal Census in Las Vegas, San Miguel County, New Mexico, as an agent for Wells Fargo Company, living at 906 3rd Street with his wife Etta E., age 55 and son Harry L. Palmer, age 18, as an accident & claims clerk with the railroad. In 1911, Frank removed to Delta County, Colorado and resided on a ranch west of Cedaredge after retiring from Wells Fargo at $30.00 per month. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge.

Fairfield is listed in the 1920 Federal Census in Delta County, Colorado, retired and living with his wife Ella E., age 65. Also listed separately in the same census record is his son Harry and his family.

Fairfield died on May 5, 1933 in Cedaredge. His widow, Ella, died in 1936 in Cedaredge. Both are buried in lot 119, block 2 in the Riverside Cemetery in Denver.

In 1863, Richard and Lucinda Tilton moved back to Maine to take charge of a farm belonging to a widowed sister of Richard. George also went to Maine with them and received part of his education at the common schools and Monmouth Academy. He also had the opportunity to visit his grandmother Morrison, who lived about 15 miles from the Tilton place. In 1867, the Tilton's removed to Garden City, Minnesota where George continued his education in the public schools. At age 14, he worked on farms around Garden City and by age 15, he was working as a clerk in the Clark Drug Store in Garden City. At age 16 in 1869, he was a clerk in the general store of T.N. Boynton & Company. At age 18, he took his savings of $200 and went to St. Paul and studied in a business college. The following year after returning to Garden City, he responded to a bookkeeper's position advertised by the Mankato Linseed Oil Company. Unable to borrow or rent a horse and rig for the 14 mile trip to Mankato, he walked the distance for the interview. Mr. Rensselaer Dean Hubbard was impressed with George Palmer and offered him the job he was seeking. He became bookkeeper for the firm from 1873 until the autumn of 1879.

In 1878, George suggested to Mr. Hubbard that Mankato might be a natural site for a flour mill and after serious consideration, Mr. Hubbard liked the idea and went into action. Soon, plans for a large mill on North Front Street were drawn. Ground was broken on April 22, 1878 and the mill was ready for operation in the fall of 1879. The new company was incorporated as the Mankato Mill Company, with R.D. Hubbard, William Pearson and George Palmer as shareholders. R.D. Hubbard was the president, W. Pearson the head miller and George Palmer the office and business manager.

George married on October 19, 1880 in Mankato, Olivia "Ollie" Mary Roberts, born on November 19, 1860 in Mankato, daughter of William R. Roberts and Mary Emma Fowler of Wales and Mankato.

During the next few years, two name changes for the corporation followed, with Hubbard Milling Company evolving as the corporate name in 1887. In partnership with S.H. Grannis in 1888, Palmer embarked in the business of buying and storing wheat and erected elevators along the railroad line. After four years, Mr. Grannis retired and the firm later became known as Hubbard & Palmer with George Palmer as president.

About 1899, George went to Maine and visited with his cousins George and Joseph Palmer, sons of Joseph Palmer. He had the opportunity of visiting the old home in Fayette and also two other farms on which his father had lived in Fayette.

On December 30, 1903, George resigned his position with Hubbard Milling Company and became full-time president of the First National Bank. After the death of R. D. Hubbard on August 30, 1905, Palmer was called back to Hubbard Milling Company on September 11, 1905 and became a director and corporate treasurer, while he also remained as president of the First National Bank, a position he held for over 32 years. Jay Hubbard succeeded his father as president until July 21, 1906, when he resigned and Palmer became president. He remained president until his death in 1939. A few years earlier, he resigned his position as president of the First National Bank.

George was very active in many civic matters and church activities during his lifetime in Mankato. He was Mayor of Mankato in 1884, Chairman of the Board of the First National Bank, Member of the Board of Education, President of Mankato YMCA, President of the Baptist State Convention, member of the Central Minnesota Immigration Company, member of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Chicago Board of Trade. His political affiliation was a Republican and he was a Baptist. He was a man of great charm and warmth of personality - a true inspiration of so many younger members of the Palmer family.

George is listed in the 1885 Minnesota State Census in Mankato, living with his wife and infant child, Earl Melvin Palmer. Also living in his household were his aunt Lucinda Tilton, age 73 and her husband Richard, age 73. He is also listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Mankato, living at 709 South 3rd Street, with his wife and two children Earl and Ruth. His occupation was listed as Treasurer of a milling company. Olivia Palmer was also very active in many civic matters including holding every office in the Baptist Church available to women. She taught a large class for women in the Sunday School and played the organ for the Sunday School. She also directed the Sunday School orchestra.

George died on April 18, 1939 in Mankato. His wife Olivia died six years earlier on March 8, 1933 also in Mankato. George and Olivia are buried in the Glenwood Cemetery in Mankato.

IX-8-18 Hushia T. PALMER (Benjamin,[VIII-2-2] Benjamin,[7] Benjamin,[6] William,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

There is reason to believe that Hushia T. Palmer is the son of Benjamin Palmer of Readfield, Maine. At the present time he will be listed as such, but further research is needed to positively identify his parentage.

Born on April 9, 1823 in Readfield, Kennebec County, Maine. He married on May 25, 1845 in Winthrop, Kennebec County, Martha W. Maxim, born on September 10, 1822 in Winthrop or Wayne, daughter of Seth Maxim and Mary Wing of Wayne, Maine. He removed to Brewer, Penobscot County, Maine soon after marriage but later moved to Parkman, Piscataquis County, Maine before 1850.

Hushia is listed in the 1850 Federal Census in Parkman, as a farmer, living with his wife Martha, age 27 and children, George R., age 3 and Mary E. Palmer, age 1. He is listed in the 1870 Federal Census in Parkman, as a farmer, living with his wife Martha, age 46 and children, Mary A., age 8, Anna W., age 6 and Jefferson D. Palmer, age 4. Also listed in the same household is Joshua Coburn, age 20, with his wife Ella E., age 17 and daughter Nellie M. Coburn, age 4 months. Ella E. is believed to be a daughter of Hushia. (research pending) Also listed is Chester Coburn, age 18, who is believed to be a brother of Joshua Coburn. Hushia is also listed in the 1880 Federal Census in Parkman, as a carpenter, living with his wife Martha W., age 56 and son, Jefferson D. Palmer, age 14. Also listed in the same household is Charles A. Palmer, age 27, as a farmer, son-in-law, his wife Annie W., age 16 and daughter Hattie M. Palmer, age 3. Also listed is Leonard M. Page, age 20, as a farmer, son-in-law, his wife Mary A., age 18. Hushia is also listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Sangerville, Piscataquis County, Maine.

To Portland Jan 4 - 94

J. O. Palmer

Dear Sir: ..... Your grandfather as you know was John who died in 1820. His father I am not sure of but will try and find out. Your great-grandfather Palmer married a Knowles and was a sister to Grandfather Morses first wife. We used to call on the old lady. She lived till about 1840 and had her home with Amos Palmer. So you are both of your great grandmothers were Knowles and were own sisters. Your grandmother as you know was Lydia Morse, half sister to father - who afterwards married Jos Watson. Deacon Benjamin Palmer came to this state when he was 14. He came with his Uncle John Knowles and they settled opposite the place where Joseph Palmer once lived. I think Deacon Palmer died in '58.
Now about the Morse family. Grandfather Philip Morse born May 24 - 1755. died Feb 18 - 1847. Enlisted during the war just before the battle of Bunker Hill. I got this direct from him. He told me he was in Boston on that day and should have been in that battle but could not get a gun. In a few days after that he was supplied with a French gun and fought till the end of the war. I went with him to Augusta March 4 -1839 to get his pension (Father was at that time in the Arroostock War) I have a letter from my brother Philip making the same inquiries that you do. I called at Emmas and expected to find some of the papers but she said that Aroline and Mother burned them when they moved as they were burdensome to keep - But you can get some information from the Pension Office at Augusta which will probably give his discharge Reg & Co.

IX-10-12 Joseph PALMER (Elisha,[VIII-5-9] Jonathan,[7] Joseph,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

It is not certain if Joseph is a son of Elisha. At the present time he will be listed as such until further research is needed to positively identify his parentage. Dr. Byron Palmer's manuscript states that Joseph was born in Lisbon, Grafton County, New Hampshire, but the 1850 and 1860 Census records states that he was born in Vermont. Lisbon is about 12 miles east of the Vermont state line and Hanover is one mile east of the state line. At present we will list him as being born in Lisbon.

Born about 1820 in Lisbon, Grafton County, New Hampshire. He married on February 22, 1842, Sarah "Sally" Dyke, born in July 1822, probably in Dalton, Coos County, New Hampshire, daughter of Jonathan Dyke and Clarissa Sweat. Joseph was residing in Hanover, Grafton County and Sarah was residing in Lyme, Grafton County at the time of their marriage.

Joseph is listed in the 1850 Federal Census in Hanover, as a laborer, living with his wife Sarah, age 27 and daughter Mary Palmer, age 5. He is listed in the 1860 Federal Census in Hanover, living with his wife Sarah, age 36 and children, Mary, age 14, Adda, age 10 and Nellie Palmer, age 3.

Joseph died before 1900. His widow, Sarah, age 77, is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Littleton, Grafton County, living on Main Street, as a boarding house keeper with her widowed daughter, Mary Fiske, age 51, as a servant and her son, Harry B. Fiske, age 15. Also listed in the same household is Mildred A. Palmer, age 22, as a laborer in a shoe shop and also single granddaughter of Sarah. According to the 1900 Census Record, Sarah was the mother of three children, two of whom were still living in 1900.

IX-12-10 Louisa Emilia PALMER (David,[VIII-4-9] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on June 6, 1852 in Clinton, Scott County, Iowa. After her mother died in 1856, she went to live with her uncle & aunt, Oliver and Esther Powers. She married on November 26, 1868 in Winthrop, Buchanan County, Iowa, Edwin Stephen Stockwell, born on June 27, 1842 in Salem, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, son of Stephen Stockwell and Roana Rich.

During the Civil War, Edwin enlisted in August 1861 with Company "A", Chandler Horse Guard. The company was disbanded after three months and Edwin returned home after being discharged for ill health. Later in 1863, he enlisted in Company "H", 27th Iowa Volunteer Infantry. He was discharged at the end of the war on June 6, 1866. Edwin and Louisa first lived in Winthrop after marriage, but later removed to Flatonia, Fayette County, Texas on December 18, 1875. In September 1889 Edwin moved his family of six children to the Alvin country where he planted a pear orchard. After several years the venture turned out to be very promising. Edwin decided to raise young trees for experimental purposes, transplanting and selling. The combinbation of nursery business, pear and orange orchards, and a grove of Weaver's pecans expanded into a thriving business which became known as The Stockwell Nursery Company, established in 1889.

Edwin is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Alvin, Brazoria County, Texas, as a farmer, living with his wife Eliza E., age 47, (should be Louisa E.) and six children, Elmer P., age 27, Weed A., age 24, Clara L., age 21 Owen N., age 14, Edwin S., Jr. age 10, and Tyner L. Stockwell, age 5. Louisa is listed as being the mother of nine children, seven of whom were living in 1900. Sometime in 1918, Edwin and Louisa went to Phoenix, Arizona, but in 1920, returned to Alvin, Texas. He is also listed in the 1920 Federal Census in Alvin, living on Gordon Street with his wife Louiza E. Louisa was a devoted member of the Eastern Star.

Louisa died on September 22, 1924 at St. Joseph's Infirmary in Houston, Texas. Edwin died on January 25, 1935 in Alvin. Both are buried in the Old Confederate Cemetery in Alvin.

IX-12-11 Lucy Annetta "Nettie" PALMER (Joel,[VIII-10-15] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on August 17, 1865 at the Palmer homestead east of Golden City, Jefferson County, Colorado Territory. Nettie spent her childhood years at the homestead and when she became eighteen years of age, she married on October 15, 1883 in the Baptist Church in Golden, Henry John Blatter, born on February 20, 1856 in Pope County, Illinois, in the section which later became known as Waltersburg. He was the son of John Henry Blatter and Stephanie "Fannie" Boose.

Nettie and Henry lived in a house located near Fifth and Washington Street in Golden. Their first and only child, Henry Joel Blatter, was born on November 9, 1884 in Golden. Nettie developed complications after childbirth and died eleven days later on November 20, 1884. Grief stricken, Henry gave his only child to Nettie's parents Joel and Matilda Palmer, who had also lost their last child Lena Edna, following birth the year before. Henry John Blatter later married on January 31, 1889 in Georgetown, Clear Creek County, Colorado, Mary Susan "Mollie" Jones, born on January 2, 1869 in Fredericktown, Madison County, Missouri, daughter of Jesse Jones.

Henry John died on September 21, 1921 in Arvada, Jefferson County, Colorado and is buried in the Golden Cemetery. Mollie died on December 11, 1951 in Arvada and is also buried in the Golden Cemetery.

In 1873, she went with her parents by train to Machiasport, Washington County, Maine where her parents were married and originally lived for a short time before going to California in 1865. About 1884, Mabel went to Everett, Massachusetts to work for Mr. & Mrs. William True, an elderly couple. She assisted Mrs. True with the housework and cooking until she married in 1889.

Mabel married on September 18, 1889 in Machiasport, Albert Frederic "Fred" Decatur, born in August 1868 in Malden, Middlesex County, Massachusetts. After marriage, Mabel went to live in Malden. About 1900, Mabel and her daughter, Gertrude, were on a steamer returning from a vacation in Machiasport when their ship was rammed by a big collier (ship transporting coal) during a heavy fog. All passengers were ordered on deck without baggage for immediate transfer to the collier as their steamer was slowly sinking. Within a few hours they were taken from the coal ship to another steamer which arrived to rescue them and brought them to Boston.

Albert is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Precinct 6 in Boston, as a surveyor, living at 98 Beach Street with his wife Mabel P., age 33 and children, Gertrude, age 6 and Alice Decatur, age 4. They were residing in the household of Mary A. Hazelwood, an 81 year old widow and also a grandmother of Albert. IX-13-7 Mary Amanda PALMER (Joel,[VIII-10-15] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on November 4, 1863 at the Palmer homestead east of Golden City, Jefferson County, Colorado Territory. Mary spent her childhood years on the family farm located on the Middle Golden Road. (Also known as West 32nd Avenue east of Golden). She married on December 26, 1886 in Golden, George Frederick Atto, born on December 26, 1857 in Lennoxville, Quebec, Canada, the son of immigrants from England.

Mary and George lived at the Golden Gate Community west of Golden for a few months after they were married and then bought the NE Quarter of Section 1, Range 71W, Township 3S, Jefferson County, next to the Bond property. They bought the farm from a family named Flinn in 1888. George moved his family into the log cabin built by the Flinn's and built a three story barn of rough lumber from logs cut on his property.

Mary suffered from a badly set broken leg which pained her all her life. She developed some expertise as a midwife and on one occasion walked a mile to their nearest neighbor, Frank and Hallie Bond, to serve as midwife for the birth of their son Fred Bond, who was born on June 10, 1899. She never left the house without carrying a garden hoe, which she used to kill rattlesnakes if and when necessary.

Mary and George made their living on a mixed cattle ranch, dairy and truck farm. In 1902, after George decided it became obvious that the land was not suitable for intensive farming, he and his wife and seven children moved to a ten acre truck farm at the intersection of Brown Lane and Jefferson Avenue. (now 44th Ave and Parfet Street, Wheatridge, CO) George sold his previous farm to Fred F. Bartlett on February 2, 1906. The land passed through at least one other owner before being added to the White Ranch in 1925. For the next thirty years, they operated a small general store, the only one in the Fruitdale Community at the time.

On October 28, 1919, Mary and her sons Walter and Fred were part of a four car caravan that started from Golden and ended in Los Angeles, California about November 30,1919. They stayed a few weeks and then Mary and Fred returned to Colorado by train. Walter remained in California and married Edith Bell. Walter and Edith lived in Bell Gardens, California and later removed to Eugene, Oregon.

George died on January 22, 1924 in Golden. Mary died on February 13, 1951 in the Fruitdale Community. Both are buried in the Golden Cemetery in Golden.

IX-15-6 Oscar John PALMER (John,[VIII-10-16] Amos,[7] Benjamin,[6] William,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher [2], William [1])

Born on August 7, 1846 in Fayette, Kennebec County, Maine. In 1848, Oscar went with his parents to Clayton Township, Winnebago County, Wisconsin, where he spent most of his childhood years. On January 4, 1864, he enlisted as a private at Neenah, Wisconsin, in Company G of the Wisconsin 3rd Regiment Infantry Volunteers. He was promoted to Corporal and later was mustered out of service at Louisville, Kentucky on July 18, 1865. During his service in the Civil War, he contracted mumps on March 16, 1864 and was returned to duty on April 8th. On April 14th, he had a remittent fever and returned to duty on May 4th. He also had a touch of rheumatism during the winter of 1864. According to a letter dated October 8, 1865, written by Oscar Palmer to his younger brother George, he mentioned how much of forced marching he had to endure during the war. He evidently marched from Chattanooga to Atlanta, from there to Savannah and on to Columbia and Raleigh. He then marched from Raleigh to Richmond, Alexandria and then to Washington DC, where he participated in the Grand Review on May 24, 1865.

Oscar married on October 31, 1865 at the Presbyterian Church in Oshkosh, Winnebago County, Wisconsin, Rhoda Anne Gilbert, born on June 6, 1848 in Watkins, Steuben County, New York, daughter of Jacob Gilbert and Nancy M. Hubbard. Oscar was a lumberman, and Rhoda was a school teacher at the time of their marriage. Rhoda is listed in the 1850 Federal Census in Reading, Steuben County, New York, age 2, living with her parents, brother and sister, Charles A. and Lydia B. Gilbert. Today, (1998), Reading is located in Schuyler County. Oscar and his wife, Rhoda, are listed in the 1870 Federal Census in Clayton, living with his mother Cordelia and five brothers and sisters. Oscar and his family removed to Bolton Township, Cowley County, Kansas about February 1872 and homesteaded on a farm 3 miles south-east of Geuda Springs near Arkansas City, where he resided until 1909, when he and his family moved to Arkansas City. His homestead consisted of a total of 640 acres. One quarter was known as the "Hay Quarter", west of Geuda Springs, which furnished hay for the horses and other livestock. His home was on a section which included a half section across the road, which later became known as "The West Place."

Oscar went into the freighting business in order to meet his financial obligations. He purchased a large freight wagon, which took eight mules to pull and sometimes more. He had the distinction of being the owner of the first threshing machine delivered to Wichita, Kansas, which was delivered by the Huber Brothers from Wisconsin. He is listed in the 1880 Federal Census in Bolton Township, as a farmer, living with his wife Rhoda A., age 31 and children, Grace M., age 8, Alice M., age 6, Melvin O., age 5, Lloyd A., age 3 and Fannie V. Palmer, age 1.

Oscar was a big man, five feet, 11 1/2 inches tall and weighed 220 pounds. He always had a full beard. Although he was a tough and rugged frontiersman, he became a Faith Healer. Few medical doctors were on the frontier in the early days so Oscar dedicated himself to serving the Lord as a Faith Healer for the rest of his life. He devoted himself completely to healing and helping others while his wife took charge of the farm operations. His healing career lasted into 1898, when he suddenly had a paralytic stroke about 200 yards from his house down by the windmill. Oscar never fully recovered from that stroke, and subsequently his healing powers were gone. He had lost faith in himself and in the Lord, working through him. On May 6, 1898, Oscar applied for a pension due to his disability as a result of the stroke. He received $8.00 per month for partial disability to earn a support by manual labor. His pension was later increased to $16.50 per month.

In the Kansas State Census of 1885, Oscar is listed as a farmer, owning 320 acres of agriculture land. The cash value of his farm, including improvements, were valued at $7,000. and farming implements and machinery valued at $200. His farm land consisted of 90 acres of corn, 100 acres of winter wheat, 35 acres of oats, one acre of Irish potatoes and 20 acres of millet. He also had fruit bearing orchards consisting of 50 apple trees, 100 peach trees and 6 plum trees. He had additional non-bearing fruit trees consisting of 800 apple trees, 30 pear trees, 30 peach trees, 12 plum trees, 50 cherry trees, 2 acres of vineyard and 1/2 acre of blackberries. His livestock consisted of 27 horses, one mule, 8 milch cows, 65 other cattle and 100 swine. He was able to produce 1,000 pounds of butter. The remainder of his farm was prairie grass and 3 acres of cottonwood trees. In the Kansas State Census of 1895, Oscar is listed as a farmer, owning 800 acres of agriculture land, 600 of which was under cultivation. The cash value of his farm, including improvements, were valued at $12,000 and farming implements and machinery valued at $447. His farm consisted of 500 acres of winter wheat, sown in the fall, 25 acres of rye, sown in the fall, 90 acres of corn, sown in the spring, 90 acres of oats, sown in the spring and 1/2 acre of Irish potatoes. He also had 800 apple trees, 30 peach trees, 12 plum trees, 50 cherry trees and one acre of cottonwood trees. His livestock consisted of 29 horses, 9 mules, 18 milch cows, 40 cattle and 80 swine. He also had a number of poultry and 2 dogs. He was able to produce 500 pounds of butter ending March 1, 1895 and 10 tons of hay cut from 200 acres of fenced in prairie in

Oscar is also listed in the 1900 Federal Census, in Bolton Township, as a farmer, living with his wife, Rhoda, age 51 and children, Lloyd A., age 23, Ernest J., age 15, Hope O., age 12, Agnes R., age 10 and Daisy D. Palmer, age 5. On January 8, 1909 Rhoda purchased from William S. and Annie Cooper, a two story bungalow located at 711 North 4th Street in Arkansas City. Their son, Ernest, helped manage the homestead while their daughter, Agnes, cared for Oscar and Rhoda until their deaths a few years later. Oscar is also listed in the 1910 Federal Census in Arkansas City, Cowley County, living at 711 North 4th Street, with his wife, Rhoda A., age 61, and three youngest daughters, Hope O., age 22, Agnes, age 20 and Daisy D. Palmer, age 14.

Rhoda died on September 5, 1911 at the family home in Arkansas City as a result of cancer. Oscar died on January 1, 1916 in Arkansas City. Both are buried in the family plot in the Geuda Springs Cemetery. Rhoda provided in her will sufficient money for all her daughters to pursue a teaching career and become school teachers. She evidently did not wish for them "to become dependent on any man" for a living. She did manage to send her son, Ernest, to Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas for a Farmers Short Course. According to the 1900 Census, Oscar and Rhoda Palmer had 12 children, but only 8 were living as of June 1, 1900. Rhoda Palmer's obituary, dated September 6, 1911, states that she had 13 children. The names of 11 children are recorded below. The remaining two children are believed to have been born between 1890 and 1895 and died probably in early childhood before 1900.

Rhoda Anne Palmer's Last Will and Testament

July 22, 1911

Know all men by these presents, that I Rhoda A. Palmer, of Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas, considering the uncertainty of this life; and being of sound mind and memory do make and declare and publish this my last will and testament.

FIRST: - I give and bequeath to my beloved son, Loyd A. Palmer, of Cowley County, Kansas, the South half (1/2) of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of Section Seventeen (17), Township Thirty-four (34), Range Three (3) east, free of any encumbrance.

SECOND: - I give and bequeath to my beloved son, Earnest J. Palmer, of Cowley County, Kansas, the north half (1/2) of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of Section Seventeen (17), Township Thirty-four (34), Range Three (3) East free of any encumbrance.

THIRD: - I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Rhoda Agnes Palmer, the home place in Gilstrap Addition to the city of Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas, on north fourth street, and house number seven hundred and eleven (711) with the fur-niture therein, clear of encumbrance; conditioned that she takes care of her parents during their life time.

FOURTH: - I give and bequeath to my beloved daughters, Mrs. Grace M. Abrams of Cowley County, Kansas, Fannie V. Cooke of Lyons County, Kansas, Hope O. Palmer, Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas, Rhoda Agnes Palmer of Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas, the north-west quarter (1/4) of Section Seventeen (17), Township thirty-four (34), Range Three (3) east, share and share alike; conditioned that said land the north-west quarter (1/4) of Section Seventeen (17), Township thirty-four (34), Range Three (3) east shall be leased to M. O. Palmer, and he shall pay as rental for the same one third (1/3) of all grain and hay delivered to the market, and the proceeds thereof to be paid to the Executors, and sixty (60) acres of said quarter (1/4) section including the orchard he shall pay the cash rental of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) per acre yearly to the Executors, and the said M. O. Palmer shall continue to occupy said land upon the condition and terms aforesaid until said land can be sold for One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars per acre, and then said land shall be sold and the proceeds thereof be divided share and share alike to Mrs. Grace M. Abrams, Mrs. Fannie V. Cooke, Hope O. Palmer, Rhoda Agnes Palmer and Daisy D. Palmer.

FIFTH: - The East half (1/2) of Section Seventeen (17), Township Thirty-four (34) Range Three (3) east shall be sold, and the proceeds thereof shall be used to pay off all mortgages and all other debts of the estate.

SIXTH: - All personal property shall be sold and the proceeds thereof shall be loaned out on good security, and the interest thereof shall be paid to my three daughters as long as they remain single, Hope O. Palmer, Rhoda Agnes Palmer and Daisy D. Palmer, and when Daisy D. Palmer becomes twenty-one (21) years of age then the principal sum of said sale shall be divided between Hope O. Palmer, Rhoda Agnes Palmer and Daisy D. Palmer, share and share alike.

SEVENTH: - I give and bequeath to my daughter Daisy D. Palmer, One-Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars for the purpose of completing her education. Said One Thousand ($1,000.) Dollars shall be taken out of the proceeds of the sale of land, and if not sufficient money left out of said sale after the debts are paid, the balance that is needed to make One Thousand ($1,000.) Dollars shall be taken out of any other money belonging to the estate.

EIGHTH: - I give and bequeath to my son, Earnest J. Palmer, all of the honey bees.

NINTH: - I hereby request that all money due the estate by note, or otherwise, at the time of my demise, by any of the heirs, shall be deducted from their bequests.

TENTH: - I request that a nice and plain monument be erected over our graves.

(sig) Rhoda A. Palmer

ELEVENTH: - I give and bequeath to my grand children, Floyd Abrams, Ramona Abrams, Oscar Cooke, Ernest Cooke, Vera Palmer, Ruth Palmer, Fern Palmer, Mar Palmer, Ralph Palmer and Warren Palmer, and all other grand children living at the time of my demise, sum of Twenty Five ($25.00) Dollars each.

TWELFTH: - I request that my son, Earnest J. Palmer, and my daughter Fannie V. Cooke, be appointed Executors of the Estate, and that all of their expenses be paid out of the estate and receive in addition for their service the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars each; and in case M. O.

Palmer will not want to take the place then the Executors shall rent to some other one on the same terms and conditions.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have this my last will and testament contained on three (3) sheets of paper, and to each sheet thereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this Twenty-Second day of July in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eleven.

(sig) Rhoda A. Palmer

Signed, sealed, declared and published by the said Rhoda A. Palmer as and for her last will and testament in the presence of who, at her request, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.

Death of Mrs. R. A. Palmer resident of this county for many years passes away

Mrs. R. A. Palmer, wife of O. J. Palmer, 711 No. 4th St., passed away at the family home last night about 8 o'clock, after an illness which lasted for several months. The cause of her death as given as cancer. While her death was not unexpected, it came as a shock to the members of the family, several of whom were at her bedside when the end drew near. Mrs. Palmer had been in poor health for a long time, but she was a patient sufferer and had the best of care that could possibly have been given her. During the past week a professional nurse had been with her to relieve her suffering as much as possible. The deceased was 63 years of age. The family moved to the city from their farm near Geuda Springs two years ago. Mrs. Palmer was a good woman, a loving mother and a dutiful wife. She will be greatly missed by a multitude of friends.

Rhoda A. Gilbert was born in Watkins, New York, June 6, 1848. She was married to Oscar J. Palmer August 31, 1868. To this union 13 children have been born. The husband, five daughters and three sons survive her. The children are Mrs. Grace Abrams of this city. Melvin O. Palmer of Geuda Springs. Lloyd A. Palmer of Geuda Springs. Mrs. Fannie Cooke of Emporia. Ernest Palmer of Geuda Springs and the Misses Hope, Agnes and Daisy. Mr. & Mrs. Palmer came to Arkansas City in 1872 and settled on a farm near Geuda Springs where they resided until two years ago.

The funeral of Mrs. Palmer will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, conducted by the Rev. L. M. Riley. Interment will be made in the Geuda Cemetery.

IX-15-7 Osmer A. PALMER (Asa,[VIII-1-25] Moses,[7] James,[6] James,[5] Samuel,[4] Richard,[3] Joseph,[2] William [1])

Born in June 1851 in New Hampshire. He went with his parents to Rumford Center, Oxford County, Maine sometime between 1863 and 1870. He married about 1872, Abbie Josephine "Josie" Cummings, born in October 1850 in New Hampshire, daughter of Eliphalet N. Cummings.

On January 20, 1891, Osmer and his wife released their interests of a parcel of land in the town of Dummer, Coos County, being lot # 217, containing 100 acres, more or less, to his mother, Sarah A. Palmer.

Osmer is listed in the 1880 Federal Census in Gorham, Coos County, New Hampshire, living in the household of his parents, as a painter, with his wife, Abbie J. and children, Addie W., age 6, Nelson A., age 4, Grace M., age 2 and Osmer E. Palmer, age 1 month. He is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Amesbury, Essex County, Massachusetts, as a carpenter, living at 11 Wells Avenue with his wife Abby J. and children, Nelson A., age 24, Grace M., age 22, Osmer A., Jr, age 20, Lottie C., age 16 and James M. Palmer, age 14. Also listed in the same household is Eliphalet N. Cummings, age 81, father-in-law, listed as a widower and Georgia A. Cummings, age 59, sister-in-law.

On March 8, 1908, Osmer A. Palmer, of Amesbury, Essex County, deeded a 1/3 part of a parcel of land located in the town of Dummer, Coos County, being lot # 217, containing 100 acres, to the Berlin Mills Company of Portland, Maine, for one dollar and other valuable considerations.

Osmer is listed in the 1910 Federal Census in Amesbury, as a house carpenter, living at 11 Wells Avenue with his wife, Abby J. and daughter, Lottie C. Palmer, age 25, listed as a bookkeeper in a clothing store. Also listed in the same household is Georgia M. Cummings, age 68, sister-in-law. He is also listed in the 1920 Federal Census in Beverly, Essex County, Massachusetts, as a pattern maker, living at 22 Muberry Street with his wife Abbie J. and daughter, Charlotte C. Palmer, age 33, as an income tax person.

IX-16-1 Paul John PALMER (John,[VIII-10-26] John,[7] Enoch,[6] Jacob,[5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on March 24, 1897 in Saguache, Saguache County, Colorado. At age 21, he served in the U.S. Army during World War I in the Medical Corps. He was unable to go overseas because of defective hearing and was discharged on January 16, 1919.

He married on November 2, 1919, in Saguache, Maurine Griffith, of San Francisco, California. She was a stenographer at the forest office in Saguache at the time of marriage. After marriage, they resided on San Juan Avenue in Saguache. They were married at the dental parlors of Dr. S. O. Swartz by Judge J. A. Keyes. On May 1, 1920, he was initiated in the Saguache Masonic Order and by special dispensation, he was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason in the Rawlins Masonic lodge.

In 1923, he went to Wyoming and was employed with the Parco Producers and Refiners Plant. On April 6, 1927, Paul was one of seventeen men, who lost their lives in the million dollar Wyoming Gasoline Refinery fire. In a letter received by his mother shortly before the incident, Paul expressed a feeling that the refineries were not inspected properly or often enough to guarantee safety. He stated that he had an intuition and was planning to give up his position at the still.

Paul is buried in the Hillside Cemetery in Saguache.

Born on November 25, 1882 in Norwich, Oxford County, Ontario. After his early education at Norwich High School and Owen Sound Collegiate, he went to Woodstock Model School and taught in New Durham, Oxford County, Ontario for three years. He later went to Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario from 1907 to 1910. He married on November 14, 1908, Alice Margaret Corless, born on May 3, 1885 in New Durham.

He worked during summer vacations and was hired as a mining engineer at Helen Mine, Ontario in 1911. During his employment there, he took post graduate courses in mining engineering at Michigan College of Mines. In 1918-1919, he took post graduate courses at McGill University in Montreal while continuing to work as a mining engineer for asbestos mines in Black Lake, Ontario. In 1923 he went into the tunnel contracting business in Hazelton, Pennsylvania. His crew excavated shafts and tunnels for several mining companies in the area. During the depression, many mines closed and in 1932 he returned to Canada. He did exploration work on other properties in Northern Ontario, and then settled in Toronto in 1936. As a result of the depressed economy preventing him from further employment, he and his wife were able to remodel two houses to apartments which provided an income for his family.

Robert died on October 14, 1948 in Toronto and his widow, Alice, died on June 22, 1974 in Toronto. Both are buried in the Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto.

IX-23-3 Walter Furman PALMER (Hoyt,[VIII-8-22] Perley,[7] James,[6] James,[5] John,[4] James,[3] Joseph,[2] William [1])

Born in February 1868 in Brooklyn, Kings County, New York. He married about 1889, Mary Stites, born in January 1869 in New Jersey.

Walter was employed with the New York Edison Company about 1890. He prepared the petition for administration of the estate of his mother, Rebecca, on October 18, 1893 at Kings County, New York. The petition mentions the children of Rebecca as: William J., Charles H., Walter F., Emma, Sarah, Minnie and Katie. He is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in the Borough of Brooklyn, New York City, as an electrician, living at 872 Gates Avenue with his wife Mary, age 31 and children, Hazel, age 9, Lottie, age 7, Florence, age 5 and Walter Palmer, age 3. Also listed in the same household is Runyon Stites, age 24, as a steam fitter and also brother of Mary Stites Palmer.

In 1903, Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of The New York Times, asked the Edison Company for a man to supervise for The Times, installation of electricity in the Times Tower under construction in Times Square. Walter was the man chosen which was the beginning of a long career with The Times until his retirement in 1935 as the chief electrician of the New York Times.

Walter supervised electrical installations in the Times Annex on 43rd Street and in two of its additions. He designed and built many automatic controls for presses and associated equipment. He designed and built the first high-speed matrix chute used to deliver matrixes from the composing to stereotype rooms.

The most significant accomplishment in Walter's career was the designing of the ball of electric lights dropped from the flagpole on the Times Tower to signal the advent of the new year. He started the electric display on election night. These included projection of returns on a screen on the north side of the Times Tower and final signaling of the results by a searchlight and lights atop the tower. He also supervised for The Times, installation of the electric bulletin sign around the Times Tower.

Walter had patented a single tube radio receiver and a recording electrical instrument. His hobby was building radios and clocks. He was a Mason.

Walter died on March 7, 1956 at the Muhlenberg Hospital in Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey. His wife died before 1956.

IX-23-6 William Adoniram PALMER (Adoniram,[VIII-1-6] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on October 31, 1862 in Marysville, Marshall County, Kansas. William spent his childhood years on the family farm in Marysville. He married first on February 20, 1889 in Blue Rapids, Marshall County, Kansas, Norma Ett Roath, born on March 1, 1866 in Kendallville, Noble County, Indiana, daughter of William Mansfield Roath and Lavinia Ett.

About 1890, William and his family removed to Bingham, Sheridan County, Nebraska and later to Gering, Scotts Bluff County, Nebraska. In 1896 William made plans to move to Dearlodge, Montana. In March of 1897, William, his wife and four children began their trek in a covered wagon and four horse team from Nebraska to Montana via Wheatland, Wyoming. At ten o'clock in the evening of March 24, 1897, William and his family arrived at the Charles Rouse farm north of the little reservoir in the Wheatland area. Weather conditions at the time of their arrival were not very favorable as it was snowing and the depth was about 12 inches. When the storm finally stopped during the morning of March 26th, the snow level was about 48 inches. Shortly after their arrival in Wheatland, William decided to remain in the area for awhile due to a shortage of funds. He rented the Metcalf Southworth farm on the north side of the Palmer Canyon Road and began farming again. He continued for about the next ten years. During that time period he farmed the old Jones farm and raised the first sugar beets on the Wheatland Flats. Although a sugar test was taken, the beets were fed to the hogs and cattle because there wasn't a place to market them. The Wyoming Development Company was hoping to develop a new cash crop for the area, but it turned out to be unsuccessful.

William is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in the Wheatland Precinct, Laramie County, Wyoming, as a farmer, living with his wife Norma, age 32 and children, Willie, age 10, Mabel, age 9, Myrtle, age 5, Everett, age 3 and Dick Palmer, age 2.

In 1905, he spent some time at Luman Creek (now known as Palmer Canyon) where he worked a prospecting claim. During the period from 1905 to 1909, William spent some time working for a railroad survey team of the Wyoming Railroad, surveying in northern Idaho and southern Montana. He also operated a saw mill in Palmer Canyon and carried mail from Wheatland to the old Owen Post Office. The mail route was up Palmer Canyon and then north to the Owen Post Office. The trip required an overnight stay at Owen and the return trip to Wheatland was by way of the Van Hill Road. He traveled the mail route with his oldest son Will Irving who on one occasion was seriously hurt with a broken knee cap as a result of a run-away team on the Van Hill Road.

In 1908, William homesteaded at the lower end of Palmer Canyon about one-half mile above the Don Bovie Ranch. The homestead was abandoned about two years later and William then homesteaded permanently in Albany County. His homestead was located in Section 7, Township 24N, Range 70W of the 6th Principal Meridian and also 40 acres in Platte County. His home was a log house, hand hewed and completed in 1915. It was a two story structure measuring 22 feet x 42 feet inside and 19 feet high. Most of the logs were full wall length. He raised a few cattle and various small livestock plus a large selection of garden vegetables, apples, cherries, plums, raspberries and strawberries. The yard was attractive with all sorts of flowers both native and from other areas.

William is listed in the 1910 Federal Census in the Wheatland Precinct, as a farmer, living with his wife Norma, age 43 and children, William, age 20, as a farm laborer, Mable, age 18, Myrtle, age 16, Everet, age 14, as a farm laborer, Dick, age 12, as a farm laborer, Eldon, age 8, Frank, age 5 and Florence Palmer, age 2.

Norma died at the home ranch on October 4, 1915 and is buried in the family cemetery on the Palmer Canyon Ranch. In the fall of 1924, Miss Nellie Ophelia Humes, a first cousin, once removed to William, came to Wheatland from Walla Walla, Washington to keep house for William. He had just lost his youngest daughter, Florence Alice, to polio on June 7, 1924. The following year William and Nellie were married on November 5, 1925. Nellie was born on August 11, 1884 in Kansas City, Missouri, daughter of Thomas Harvey Humes and Sarah Arnella Naomi Goble. Sarah was the daughter of Jacob Goble and Lucy T. Palmer. (see VIII-12-11)

Nellie died on June 11, 1939 at the Iverson Memorial Hospital in Laramie, Wyoming and is buried in the family cemetery on the Palmer Canyon Ranch. William died on January 30, 1949 in Wheatland and is also buried on the Palmer Canyon Ranch. The small family cemetery at the Palmer Canyon Ranch is preserved in perpetuity as the final resting place of William Adoniram Palmer, Norma Ett Palmer, Nellie Ophelia Palmer, Eldon Adoniram Palmer and Florence Alice Palmer and has unlimited visitation privileges by family members.

IX-23-7 William Alston PALMER (Martin,[VIII-13-9] Jacob,[7] Jacob,[6] Jacob,[5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on October 15, 1867 in Star, Ada County, Idaho Territory. He attended school and received his education in the public school of his district and stayed with his parents until age 21. In 1889 he began earning his own living as an employee of Jim Wilson, a prominent stock man near Eagle, who also had a large range at Camas Prairie and other extensive holdings near Star. He rode the range for three years and in the meantime was acquiring some stock of his own.

William married on December 7, 1890 in Boise, Ada County, Bertha Nora Anderson, born on April 10, 1872 probably in Harrison, Boone County, Arkansas, daughter of James Madison Anderson and Hulda Adeline Cloud. She was on her way to Oregon with her parents and relatives in 1876 when her aunt Martha Anderson and her grand-father, Matthew Anderson became ill while in Idaho. They remained in Idaho where her grand-father died shortly thereafter. She was residing in Star at the time of marriage.

About 1891, William became a partner of his father in the raising of ewes and took entire charge of the stock. About 1898, the partnership was discontinued and William removed to Meridian, Ada County where he purchased a tract of land of twenty-eight acres on which he lived and farmed for four years. He is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in the Meridian Precinct, Ada County, as a farmer, living with his wife Nora B., age 28 and children, Walter A., age 8, Chester I., age 7, Helen M., age 3 and Cassie E. Palmer, age 1. In 1902, he sold out his farm and reentered the live stock business, ranging his stock on the government preserve and also ranging stock for others at a certain consideration per head. The area where he ranged his herd of cattle for summer grazing later became known as Sun Valley, the now popular winter snow resort. In 1907, he returned from a cattle drive and deposited his receipts of $10,000 in the Meridian Bank. It was during this time that "The Panic of 1907" occurred, causing the bank to fail and subsequently William lost all his money. He was never able to recover his losses and get back into the cattle business. It was about this time that he became engaged in the livery business in Meridian until about 1910 when he became an employee of Truman C. Catlin on Eagle Island, working both on the ranch there and on the range for about three years.

William is listed in the 1910 Federal Census in Meridian Village, Ada County, as the proprietor of a livery stable, living with his wife Nora B., age 38 and children, Walter A., age 18, Chester I., age 16, H. Marie, age 13, Cassie E., age 11, Ralph W., age 8 and Beryl C. Palmer, age 6. He was a member of the Meridian Grade School Board and was instrumental with others in succeeding to get the State Legislature to pass a law enabling Grade School Districts to join together and form High School Districts called Rural High Schools. As a result, the first high school in Meridian was established and the first graduating class was in 1912. He and his father-in-law, James M. Anderson, were directly responsible for the processing system of safe drinking water in the town of Meridian, which was completed in 1911.

When the Arrowstock dam was built in 1914-1915, he drove freight wagons with supplies and it was about this time that he became an employee of the Caldwell Mill & Elevator Company in Meridian and continued until September 1919 when he was obliged to give up his position as a result of an accident that forced him to remain at home. He is listed in the 1920 Federal Census in Meridian Village, as a laborer in an elevator company, living with his wife Nora, age 47 and children, Walter, age 28 and Cassie Palmer, age 21. During the Great Depression, he tried his hand at panning for gold and one winter he worked as a cook for the county jail. He was also the Night Marshall for Meridian until about 1946 when he retired and made his home with his daughter, Helen Marie Simpson. When he was 80 years old, his leg was amputated as a result of an old burn he suffered in 1919, that never healed properly.

William A. Palmer was well known in Meridian, and Ada County, where he participated in and became part of the development of the agricultural and stock raising interests and also in the commercial and industrial development. He was a member of the Meridian I.O.O.F. Lodge for 58 years.

Bertha Palmer was a member of the Sons and Daughters of Idaho, the American Legion Auxiliary and the Occident Club as well as a member of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). She served as librarian of the Meridian City Library and was a past Noble Grand of the Rebekahs.

William died on February 23, 1952 at the hospital in Boise, Ada County. His funeral was held at the Meridian Church of Christ of which he was not a member. His wife Bertha, died a few years earlier on October 30, 1946 in Meridian. Both are buried in the Meridian City Cemetery in Meridian.

Children born in Meridian:

i Walter Anderson, b. 16 Oct 1892; d. 10 Apr 1923 in Mountain Home, Elmore Co., ID as a result of pneumonia after contracting influenza. Bur. in the Meridian City Cem. He was unmarried. Walter was a bookkeeper for his father in 1910 and a rider for a cattle company in 1920. In 1918, he was drafted into service and was sent to Camp Lewis near Tacoma, Washington, assigned to the Quartermaster Department where he spent the remainder of the war.

IX-23-12 William Harrison "Harry" PALMER (John,[VIII-10-16] Amos,[7] Benjamin,[6] William,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on September 17, 1843 in Fayette, Kennebec County, Maine. In 1848, William went with his parents to Clayton Township, Winnebago County, Wisconsin where he spent most of his childhood years on the family farm. William is said to have been quite a fiddler as a young man in 1858. During the Civil War, he enlisted on October 5, 1861, as a private, with Company "K", 11th Regiment, Wisconsin Infantry Volunteers for a period of three years. He was mustered into service on October 18, 1861 in Madison, Wisconsin. The muster roll states that William was 18 years of age, single, had gray eyes, brown hair, light complexion and was 5 feet, 9 1/2 inches in height. His occupation was listed as a farmer. During his service, he appeared on the muster roll of September 29, 1862 as absent and sick at the General Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri. Evidently he became sick as a result of over exertion and excessive hardships near Old Town Landing in Arkansas. He contracted a severe form of fever resulting in the disease and also running sores on his left breast. He was an active member in General Curtis' Arkansas Campaign at Stevens Point and later was given a disability discharge on January 3, 1863 in St. Louis. At the time of discharge, he applied for disability from the Army by reason of "general debility and occasional attacks of delirium" probably as a result of diarrhea from which he suffered.

William returned home to recuperate and recover from his illness. On October 31, 1864, he enlisted again, as a private, with the 8th Battery of the Wisconsin Light Artillery Volunteers in Green Bay, Wisconsin for a term of one year. He was mustered into service on November 4, 1864 in Green Bay. He reported for duty in Murfreesboro, Tennessee on December 25, 1864. On March 3, 1865, he transferred to the 6th Battery of the Wisconsin Light Artillery Volunteers. William was mustered out of service on August 10, 1865 in Madison, Wisconsin. After the war, he resided with his sister Susan and her family at Money Creek, Houston County, Minnesota until he married on March 16, 1866, in Caledonia, Houston County, Minnesota, Alwilda Jane Ballenger, born on September 13, 1847 in Winchester, Randolph County, Indiana, daughter of John Randolph Ballenger and Theresa Oyler.

In April 1867, William and Alwilda resided at Bear Creek about ten miles north of New London, Outagamie County, Wisconsin. He removed to Nicollet County, Minnesota before 1870 and took up 160 acres of farm land and farmed until 1879, when he removed to Mankato, Blue Earth County, Minnesota.

He is listed in the 1880 Federal Census in Mankato, as as laborer, living with his wife Alwilda and children, John H., Alfred and Ellsworth Palmer. William is listed in the 1885 Minnesota State Census in Mankato, living with his wife Alwilda and four children, John, Alfred, William and George Palmer. Also living in the same household was his nephew Ira Ernest Berry, age 20, son of his sister Susan Berry. He secured employment in the old oil mill, but after seven years, in 1886, he resigned that position in order to identify himself with the Hubbard Flour Mill. He was also engaged at various times, as an engineer, at the city pumping station, the linseed oil works, the big mill and Mayer Brothers. Also in 1886, he again applied for pension because he was unable to earn support by reason of rheumatism, disease of the heart and eyes, disease of respiratory organs and severe deafness. He was finally granted a pension of $8.00 per month.

In 1889, William and his brother engaged in business for themselves, having a number of threshing outfits throughout the wheat country. He continued his business activities until the time of his death in 1905. William is also listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Mankato, at 712 North 5th Street, as a common laborer, living with his wife, two sons, William and George. Also listed in the same household is his widowed mother-in-law Theresa Ballenger, age 72 years. William was a member of the Masonic Lodge, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows (I.O.O.F) and the Alexander Wilkin Post, G.A.R. He was also an active worker in the Baptist Church.

William died on September 10, 1905 in Mankato as a result of cerebral hemorrhage. His widow, Alwilda, died on April 29, 1911 in Mankato. He and his wife are buried in the Glenwood Cemetery in Mankato.

Born on March 22, 1839 in Lynn, Essex County, Massachusetts. During the Civil War, he enlisted on April 1, 1861, as a private, with Company "I", 8th Massachusetts Volunteer Militia (M.V. M.), Salem Light Infantry and was mustered into service on April 30, 1861. The organization was also known as "The Salem Zouaves".

On August 1, 1861, he was mustered out of service and commissioned 2nd Lieutenant on August 22, 1861 with Company "I", 19th Massachusetts Infantry Volunteers. He was mustered in on August 28, 1861. On June 18, 1862, he was commissioned 1st Lieutenant and mustered in on July 1, 1862 and was detailed as a drill master. He was appointed Adjutant on September 18, 1862. On December 13, 1862, he was wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg, Virginia. On April 16, 1863, he was commissioned Captain and mustered in on May 1, 1863. On July 3, 1863, he was wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania and again on June 3, 1864 at Cold Harbor, Virginia. On July 28, 1864, he was commissioned Major but the order was revoked on September 13, 1864. He was again commissioned Major on April 8, 1865.

On August 22, 1865, per General Order No. 133, he was breveted Lieutenant Colonel with Company "I", 19th Massachusetts Infantry Volunteers, effective March 13, 1865 for gallant and meritorious services at the battle of Hatcher's Run, Virginia. On June 22, 1867, per General Order No. 65, he was breveted Colonel with the 19th Massachusetts Infantry Volunteers, effective April 9, 1865 for meritorious services during the campaign terminating with the surrender of the insurgent army under General Robert E. Lee.

On July 28, 1865, he was mustered out of service as Captain of Company "G", 19th Massachusetts Infantry Volunteers. On December 19, 1865, he was appointed as an aid to the Chief of Staff and participated in the ceremonies delivering the colors of returned Massachusetts Volunteers to the state authorities at the State House in Boston. He marched in the parade following the ceremonies. On November 24, 1868, he was elected a Lieutenant of the Salem Light Infantry Veteran Association.

William married first, on January 26, 1869 in Salem, Essex County, Grace Porter Hunt, born on April 21, 1843 in Salem. On February 22, 1878, Col. W. L. Palmer was the caterer at a supper given at the Essex House by the Veteran Association. Speeches were conducted by Gen., Oliver, Capt. Reynolds, Hon. C. Foote and Dr. H. Wheatland. William is listed in the 1880 Federal Census in Salem, as a hotel proprietor, living in the hotel with his wife Grace P., age 37 and children, William H., age 9 and Joseph P. Palmer, age 7. He and his family removed to Staten Island, New York sometime after June 1880.

Grace died on May 5, 1881 at Staten Island. After her death, he married second, on January 5, 1882 in New Haven, New Haven County, Connecticut, Mrs. Sarah J. Hubbell. William was the proprietor of the Pavilion Hotel in New Brighton on Staten Island until his death.

William died on November 11, 1884 in New Brighton and is buried in Salem. On May 5, 1885 at the annual meeting of the Salem Light Infantry Veteran Association, a resolution of respect to the memory of Colonel William L. Palmer was adopted.

IX-23-16 William Nelson "Nen" PALMER (Joel,[VIII-10-15] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on February 1, 1862 at the Palmer homestead east of Golden City, Jefferson County, Colorado Territory. William spent his childhood years on the family farm located on the Middle Golden Road about one mile east of Golden. He is listed in the 1870 Federal Census of Jefferson County living with his parents. As a young man, William helped around the farm while his father Joel was delivering his produce to the mining towns in Jefferson, Gilpin and Clear Creek Counties. He was also listed in the first Colorado State Census of 1885 at age 23 living with his parents.

William married first, on October 11, 1894 in Golden, Grace A. Clark, born on December 1, 1870 at the Indian Hills Community located between Morrison and Evergreen, Jefferson County, Colorado, daughter of Jessie Clark and Ellen Christiansen of Indiana. William is listed in the 1900 Federal Census of Jefferson County living on Wall Street, Golden with his wife and two daughters, Mary and Grace. His occupation was listed as an ice dealer. He is listed in the 1910 Federal Census of Jefferson County with his wife and five children living at 1214 Ninth Street in Golden City. His occupation was listed as superintendent of the Golden Waterworks. The 1910 Federal Census indicates that six children were born to Grace Palmer, but only five were living in 1910. He is listed in the 1920 Federal Census of Jefferson County living with his three youngest sons at 1214 Ninth Street, Golden. Grace, his wife had died two years prior on March 14, 1918 in Golden and is buried in the Golden Cemetery. About 1921, he married second, Mrs. Margaret Olmstead.

William Palmer was superintendent for many years of the Lee-Stewart-Eskin & Wanamaker ditch companies and was recognized as having more knowledge about the waters of Clear Creek and the priorities of the various ditches than any other man in the area. He was always active in politics and nearly always Republican committed in his precinct. For two terms he was water commissioner for the district and for several years was water superintendent for the city of Golden. He was also a member of the Woodmen of the World.

On July 16, 1923, while attending to his duties as water superintendent, William was tragically killed in a collision with a tramway electric car while driving his Ford truck at Bluffs Station, three miles east of Golden. He is buried in the Golden Cemetery next to his wife Grace.

IX-23-17 William "Willie" Towle PALMER (George,VIII-7-6 Aaron,7 Samuel,6 Joseph,5 Christopher,4 Joseph,3 Christopher,2 William 1)

Born on February 14, 1872 in Newton Upper Falls, Middlesex County, Massachusetts. He married first, on April 19, 1899 in Needham, Norfolk County, Massachusetts, Sarah "Sadie" Ann Thompson, born on March 7, 1880 in Needham Heights, Norfolk County, daughter of John Thompson and Annie L. Wood. Willie was a machinist at the time of marriage.

Willie is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Needham, as a machinist, living at 17 Greendale Avenue, with his wife Sadie, age 20, in the household of John Thompson. Sadie is listed as a step-daughter of John Thompson, age 75, born in October 1824 in England. Sadie's mother, Annie, age 53, born in March 1847 in Canada is also listed in the same household.

Willie is listed in the 1911 Newton City Directory, as a machinist, boarding at Highlandville in Newton Upper Falls. He was employed with the Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph Company at 1238 Chestnut Street in Newton Upper Falls. It appears that William and Sadie were divorced. She died on August 27, 1948 at the Glover Memorial Hospital in Needham Heights and is buried in the Needham Cemetery. She was residing at 157 Webster St, Needham, at the time of her death.

Willie married second, on November 30, 1924 in Cambridge, Middlesex County, Agnes Allardyce, born about 1895 in Stevenston, Co. Ayrshire, Scotland, daughter of Thomas and Mary Allardyce. He was residing at 1156 Chestnut Street, Newton, as a machinist, at the time of marriage. Agnes died shortly after marriage.

Willie married third, Julia May Buttrick, born on July 10, 1871 in Newton Upper Falls, daughter of David H. Buttrick and Julia Ann Thayer.

Willie died on February 20, 1944, at his residence on 995 Chestnut Street in Newton Upper Falls. At the time of his death, he was listed as a retired locksmith. He is buried in the Needham Cemetery. His widow, Julia, died on January 11, 1954 at her residence on 9 West Pine Street in Newton. She is buried in the Newell Cemetery in South Attleboro, Mass.

IX-23-18 William True PALMER (Atkins,[VIII-1-29] John,[7] John,[6] Jacob,[5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on May 30, 1890 in Machiasport, Washington County, Maine. After high school, he worked in the Boston office of Dwight Manufacturing Company, making Anchor brand cotton products.

He married on April 9, 1915 in Laconia, Belknap County, New Hampshire, Vivian E. Cobleigh, born on June 10, 1891 in Thetford, Orange County, Vermont, daughter of Elmore Cobleigh and Cora Peck. Shortly after marriage, he and his wife lived with his sister, Alta, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Later, he and his wife and daughter, Eunice, went to Barahona, Dominican Republic in 1920, as the paymaster for American Sugar Company. As a paymaster, he traveled on horseback with armed guards to the various camps. The bugs, lizards and lack of sanitary conditions shortened their stay to about one year, at which time they returned to New Hampshire. He was employed with the New England Power Company as paymaster in charge of the Worcester, Massachusetts office. William retired in May 1955.

During the latter part of his life he resided at Pratt Junction near Sterling, Massachusetts for about 20 years and spent part of the year at his cottage on Hadley Lake in Jacksonville, Washington County, Maine. He was a member of the Trinity Lodge of Masons in Clinton, Massachusetts and the First Church in Sterling.

Vivian died on December 24, 1965 in Sterling. William died on May 25, 1976 in Sterling. Both were cremated and their ashes spread at Lake Hadley.

IX-23-19 Winfield Hooper PALMER (Atkins,[VIII-1-29] John,[7] John,[6] Jacob,[5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on April 3, 1873 in Amador City, Amador County, California. He went with his parents, as a baby, to Machiasport, Washington County, Maine in 1873 where his parents were married before removing to California in 1865. He went to Malden, Massachusetts, as a young man, in 1894. He married on January 31, 1895 in Malden, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, Mary E. McGrath, born in March 1869, probably in Malden, daughter of James W. McGrath and Mary A. Norton of Malden.

Winfield is listed in the 1900 Federal Census in Malden City, Middlesex County, engaged in the lumber business, living on Savin Street with his wife Mary E., age 31, as a bookkeeper in the lumber business, and son Clyde N. Palmer, age 3. Also listed in the same household is Mary A. McGrath, age 68, widowed mother of Mary. According to the 1900 Census Record, Mary was the mother of three children, one of whom was still living in 1900.

William remained in the lumber business all his life until he retired. On August 26, 1918, he was president of the Joseph Goodnow & Co., Inc. lumber company, near North Station in Boston.

William died on April 9, 1957.

Children born in MA:

ii Clyde Norton, b. 12 May 1897, d. 14 Sep 1918 in France. During the beginning of World War I, while a student at Wentworth Institute, he enlisted in the Naval Aviation Reserve Force. He first trained at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and then in Pensacola, Florida. He became an Ensign in February 1918 and was married on March 23, 1918 to Dorothy Kenniston of Malden, Massachusetts. Soon after marriage he was sent overseas to France and was stationed at Girouda until June when he was sent to Italy to train for night bombing. While testing a Caproni airplane, something went wrong with the engine and he was forced to make a difficult, but safe landing. For this act he was breasted Lieutenant by the Italian Government and was made First Pilot in July 1918. He was ordered to test for acceptance for the United States Government, a new 600 HP Caproni bomber. In this he flew from Milan, Italy, over the Alps to Paris. Only six out of twenty airplanes that started the trip with Clyde, made the complete trip. From Paris he went to the Northern Bombing Group at St. Inglevert, France where he was killed in an accident on September 14, 1918. While he was taxiing his airplane to the hanger, it ran over a soft spot in the new field, where a trench had been covered with earth but had not been rolled enough to harden. The plane buckled and burst into flames as the gas tank exploded. He was buried in the Calais Military Cemetery in France. In November 1920, he was cited for his heroic and distinguished service and was posthumously awarded the Navy Cross.

X-1-6 Albert deForest PALMER, Ph.D. (Albert,[IX-1-7] Isaac,[8] John,[7] Benjamin,[6] William,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on July 26 1869 in Tewksbury, Middlesex County, Massachusetts. After receiving his preliminary education in the public schools in Springfield, Massachusetts, North Berwick, Maine and Middlebury, Vermont, Albert DeForest Palmer was graduated Ph.B. in 1891 and Ph.D. in 1895 at Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island. He also studied under Henry A. Rowland at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland from 1891 to 1893 and was a graduate student of the same institution. In 1893 he joined the faculty of Brown University as an instructor in physics and in 1896 was appointed associate professor.

Albert married on July 5, 1899 in Norwood, Norfolk County, Massachusetts, Charlotte Jane Morrill, born on June 12, 1870 in Norwood, daughter of Edward H. Morrill and Jane E. Moores of Norwood. In 1926 he became chairman of the Department of Physics, serving in both capacities as an instructor and chairman until 1934 when he retired as emeritus associate professor. In the later years of his life he operated an 80 acre farm near Providence, RI, where he applied scientific methods to plant growth and development. Following his retirement he carried on research work in his private laboratory in Pasadena, California. His research was mostly in the fields of electrical, optical, and thermal phenomena, and he was regarded as an authority on precision measurements. Except for early investigations on the wave length of the helium line in the solar spectrum and the rate of condensation in steam jets, he devoted himself to studies in dielectrics and kindred fields, including the effect of pressure on the electrical resistance of mercury, apparatus for measuring high pressures, dielectric constants of solutions, changes in dielectric constants of water with temperature and frequency, thermoelectric measurement of temperature between zero and 200 degrees centigrade, strained glass half shade and compensator for measuring small changes in elliptically polarized light produced by strain and surface film, and the effect of electrostatic charge on metallic reflection. In his later years he concentrated on the study of interferometry. He was the author of "Theory of Measurements" (1912) and contributed extensively to scientific journals.

Prof. Palmer was a fellow of the American Physical Society, Optical Society of America, and American Association for the Advancement of Science and a member of the American Association of Physics Teachers, National Education Association, American Association of University Professors, Socete Francaise de Physique, Sigma Xi and Beta Theta Pi Fraternities. His religious affiliation was with the Baptist church and politically he was a Republican.

Prof. Palmer died on January 12, 1940 in Pasadena, Los Angeles County, California. His wife, Charlotte, died in 1938 in Pasadena.

X-1-8 Alfred Erven "Erv" PALMER (William,[IX-23-12] John,[8] Amos,[7] Benjamin,[6] William,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on August 17, 1870 in Money Creek Valley, West Newton Township, Nicollet County, Minnesota. In 1874, he went with his parents to New Ulm, Brown County, Minnesota and in 1876 the family removed to Mankato, Blue Earth County, Minnesota where they resided at 712 North Fifth Street.

Erv received his education in the public schools in Mankato and upon completion of the 8th grade at the Franklin School, he decided he wanted to become a jeweler. He served as an apprentice for three years, from 1886 to 1889, with Mr. C.D. Taylor, one of the leading jewelers in Mankato. Upon completion of his apprenticeship, he secured a position with the D.C. Gallett Jewelry Company in Aberdeen, South Dakota. In 1891, Erv had an opportunity to move to Grand Forks, North Dakota to secure a position with the Max Wittelshofer Jewelry Company. The move proved to be successful, for he had a very congenial working relationship with Mr. Wittelshofer which resulted in a partnership being formed in 1895 known as "Wittelshofer & Palmer, Jewelers & Silversmiths". The partnership continued until 1899 when Erv bought out Mr. Wittelshofer's interest in the business.

Erv married first, on December 15, 1897 in Owatonna, Steele County, Minnesota, Eleanor M. Jones, born on February 6, 1865 in Havana, Steele County. She died on November 10, 1898 in Owatonna as a result of meningitis and is buried in the Havana Cemetery in Havana.

In 1905, Erv and his brother William Ellsworth Palmer, formed a partnership and purchased the former C.D. Taylor Jewelry Store in Mankato, where both brothers served their apprenticeships. Erv sent Miss Barbara Henry, his bookkeeper in Grand Forks, to Mankato to set up the bookkeeping system for the new store in Mankato, which became known as "Palmer Brothers - Exclusive Jewelers". During this time, Erv continued to actively manage his store in Grand Forks, while Ellsworth operated the Mankato store. The partnership continued until 1910 when it was dissolved. The A. E. Palmer Jewelry Company in Grand Forks was very successful and Erv maintained the business until 1917 when he sold it and went into a farming venture in northern Minnesota with his uncle George Melvin Palmer. They had two farms, one in Euclid and the other in Dorothy, Minnesota. During this time, the Palmer Farming Company developed an excellent herd of registered purebred Milking Shorthorn cattle. Erv actively managed both farms, while living on the farm in Euclid, while his uncle carried on as president of the Hubbard Milling Company.

Erv married second, on May 22, 1917 in Grand Forks, Barbara Jane Henry, born on August 15, 1886 in Levant Township, Grand Forks County, North Dakota, daughter of John Henry and Barbara Davidson.

In 1932, Erv and his uncle George sold the farms and dissolved their partnership. Erv and his family removed to Glendale, California, where he and his wife Barbara again entered the jewelry business. They continued in this capacity until their retirement in 1953. Erv was a man of strong Christian faith. From boyhood and continuing throughout his life, he was active in church and Sunday School work. He and his brother John were the first two persons to be baptized in the newly constructed Baptist Church in Mankato. John was the first one to enter the baptismal tank and was immediately followed by Erv.

Alfred Erven Palmer died on March 31, 1958 in Glendale, Los Angeles County, California as a result of a cerebral hemorrhage and his widow Barbara died on February 6, 1984 as a result of cancer. Both are buried in the Forest Lawn Memorial Cemetery in Glendale.

X-1-17 Arthur Lincoln PALMER (Ira,[IX-9-1] Ira,[8] Joseph,[7] Joseph,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on July 3, 1869 in East Sumner, Oxford County, Maine. He received his education in the district school and high schools in Sumner and Hartford. He was baptized and joined the Sumner & Hartford Baptist church just after his 15th birthday. He was first employed in the post office and seed store as a young man but had to give up both jobs at age 19 in 1888 when his father was taken seriously ill.

He married on November 26, 1897 in Foxboro, Norfolk County, Massachusetts, Myrtle "Myrtie" Louise Bonney, born on July 6, 1875 in East Sumner, daughter of Isaac Bonney and Sarah Dresser Carey of Sumner. He worked his father's farm until July 1901 when he became crippled and unable to continue working the farm. Arthur was appointed postmaster at the Sumner office and took charge on October 1, 1901. He sold the family farm and built a house in the village for a home and post office. He was postmaster for seventeen years and five months when he resigned on February 28, 1919. He and his wife were active members of the Baptist Church, holding the position of church clerk for twenty nine years and deacon for twelve years. He also served as superintendent of Sunday School and teacher. Myrtie served as organist for the church and was Sunday School teacher for several years. She was also superintendent of White Cross Missionary Work.

Arthur and his family removed to California on March 1, 1919, stopping on the way to visit his sister, Lizzie, in Antrim, New Hampshire. The family arrived at Mountain View, California on March 12, having traveled by the Sunset Route. After arriving at Mountain View he was appointed librarian of the city public library and took charge on September 1, 1919, serving in that position until June 1, 1944. He also was elected County Treasurer in April 1924 for a four year term and subsequently was reelected, without opposition, for five succeeding terms until he resigned on June 1, 1944. While in Mountain View he was deacon of the Baptist Church for twenty years, trustee, church clerk, superintendent of Sunday School and teacher. Myrtie worked in various jobs, the County Clerks Office and for the County Judge. They resided at 425 Hope Street in Mountain View from 1919 to 1944. On June 5, 1944, Arthur and Myrtie removed to Los Angeles to be near their son and his family.

Arthur died on March 19, 1976 inSan Rafael, Marin County, California, aged 106 years, 8 months, 16 days. Myrtie died on February 2, 1958 in San Rafael. Both are buried in the Alta Mesa Cemetery in Mountain View.

X-2-2 Berle C. PALMER (William,[IX-23-7] Martin,[8] Jacob,[7] Jacob,[6] Jacob,[5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on December 24, 1904 in Meridian, Ada County, Idaho. He is listed in the 1910 Federal Census in Meridian Village, Ada County, Idaho, living with his parents. He evidently left home at an early age. He was in the U. S. Army at the young age of 15 years and was assigned to the Panama Canal Zone about 1919. He was reportedly to be dissatisfied with the Army and his location and subsequently called home to his mother who in turn informed the authorities about his underage which resulted in the U. S. Army discharging him from the service. He does not appear in the 1920 Federal Census in Meridian Village nor is he listed in the index for the State of Idaho.

He is believed to have married first, in 1922 in Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho, Jeanette ( ). They were later divorced. He married twice more, but the names of his wives are unknown at this time. His second wife is believed to have died in the 1930's. He lived in the Sugarhouse section in Salt Lake City, Utah in the 1930's and in 1946. He also lived in Sacramento, California in 1952. He was a painter by trade and also a cook.

Berle is reportedly to have served some prison time at San Quentin, California on more than one occasion as a result of being convicted on forgery. It is believed he served his time in the late 1940's and early 1950's. He was definitely in prison in 1952.

It is believed that there were more children by his third wife but their names are not available at this time. They may have been living in Oregon at one time.

X-2-5 Brooks PALMER (George,[IX-7-9] George,[8] James,[7] James,[6] James,[5] Samuel,[4] Richard,[3] Joseph,[2] William [1])

Born on December 27, 1900 in Haverhill, Essex County, Massachusetts. He received his early education in the common schools in Haverhill, graduating from Haverhill High School in 1918. He attended Phillips Academy in Andover, Massachusetts from 1918 to 1919 prior to attending Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire. He was a graduate of Dartmouth in 1923 with a B.S. degree. He was a member of the swimming team and also studied at the Amos Tuck School of Business Administration and Finance.

Brooks married first on September 20, 1930 at St. Thomas Church in New York City, Juliette Dix Mersereau, born about 1906 in New York, daughter of Harmon David Mersereau. He was employed with the Wachusett Thread Company of Worcester, Massachusetts at the time of his marriage.

His business career in the insurance industry included the position of instructor in the Life Underwriters' Training Council, presidency of the Association of Life Underwriters' Training Courses and lecturer-writer for the New York Life Insurance Company. During his insurance career, he had served as president of the Life Supervisors Association of New York City and was also a director of the Humane Society of New York City. He was a life insurance consultant for the insurance-brokerage firm of Brooks & Kupillas of New York City at the time of his wife's death in 1963. Brooks was the recipient of the United States Treasury Department Medal for work and speeches concerning War Bond Drives and Payroll Deduction Plans.

Brooks began collecting American clocks exclusively in 1935 and eventually as years passed, he became a leading authority in the United States on American clocks. He wrote copiously and lectured widely on his hobby. His first large book, "The Book of American Clocks," was published in 1950 by MacMillan Company of New York. The book contains more than 300 illustrations by Wallace Nutting and Palmer. In the book, Palmer sketches the history of timekeeping in America from colonial days to the 20th Century, introducing many of the early clock makers and telling how they worked, describing the various types of clocks and watches and the movements of each. His second and one of his most notable books was "A Treasury of American Clocks, " published in 1967. Both of these books have been the most quoted sources of information on this American industry's products. He was a prolific writer on the American horological scene as a contributor to "Collier's Encyclopedia", "The New York Times", "New York Sun", "American Collector", "Hobbies", "Journal of the Horological Institute of America", and as Associate Editor of the "Antiques Journal".

Brooks was an early member of the National Association of Watch and Clock Collectors (NAWCC) and was elected president on May 18, 1951, holding that position until 1953. He was a curator for the James Arthur Horological Museum at New York University and an advisor to the Hagans Clock Museum in Colorado as well as serving as a director of the American Clock Museum in Bristol.

Mrs. Brooks Palmer was of Huguenot descent, being a member of the French Huguenot family of Mersereau that settled on Staten Island in 1685. She was a descendant of General Joshua Mersereau, who served on the staff of George Washington. Mrs. Palmer was also a leader in civic affairs and former president of the Guild and of the Women of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Heavenly Rest. She was a director of the Humane Society of New York City and a member of the Lower East Side Committee of the Visiting Nurse Service of New York. She was a member of the Huguenot Society of America, the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Society of the War of 1812, Mrs. Palmer died on September 29, 1963 at her home at 1235 Park Avenue, New York City.

Brooks married second, the former Dyna G. Longmire. He died on January 9, 1974 at the Lenox Hill Hospital, New York City and is buried in New York City. Mrs. Brooks Palmer was residing at 41 East 67th Street, New York City in 1979. No children recorded.

X-3-1 Calvin Alonzo PALMER (Frank,[IX-6-7] George,[8] Aaron,[7] Samuel,[6] Joseph,[5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on November 3, 1884 in Newton, Middlesex County, Massachusetts. He married first, on September 20, 1906 in West Newton, Middlesex County, Ethel Esma Crouse, born on February 23, 1888 in Waterloo, Lunenburg County, Nova Scotia, Canada, daughter of William Roxway Crouse and Lois Wile. Calvin was an electrician at the time of marriage. He is listed in the 1911 City Directory of Newton as an electrician employed with the William H. Colgan Company, electrical contractors, 1238 Washington Street, West Newton, Massachusetts. He was residing at 1 Oak Avenue, West Newton. In 1915, he resided at 245 Webster Street, Newton and was also employed as a fireman for the City of West Newton until about 1918.

Ethel died of influenza on October 10, 1918 in Newton, and is buried in the East Needham Cemetery, Needham, Norfolk County, Massachusetts. Calvin and Ethel were residing at 1215 Washington Street, Newton at the time of her death. After her death, Emma Carron (McDonald) Palmer, moved in to care for the children during the first year. In 1919, Calvin took Russell, Calvin, Jr. and Kenneth to Bridgewater, Lunenburg County, Nova Scotia, Canada, to live with relatives along with Nellie Mae Corkum and her daughter Marie Elaine.

Calvin married second, on August 22, 1919 in Bridgewater, Nellie Mae Corkum, born on May 31, 1896 in Bridgewater, daughter of Titus Corkum and Lois Wile Crouse. After Calvin and Nellie were married, he adopted, by name only, Marie Elaine. Nellie Mae was a half-sister to Ethel Esma Crouse and was referred to by the older children as "Aunt Nellie". Lois and Stuart remained in Newton and were cared for by their grandmother Emma C. Palmer. Later, in 1919, they were taken to Nova Scotia to live with their grandmother Lois Wile Corkum and step-grandfather Titus Corkum. About 1920, the family later moved to Mount Pleasant, a small community located about two miles west of the La Have River and three miles north-west of Dublin Shore in Lunenburg County, with the exception of Lois. She remained behind to live and work in Crousetown, a small settlement on the Petite River about four miles upstream from Green Bay, with the Hubley family until she was about 13 years old. Mount Pleasant is also about four miles north-east of Crousetown and on occasions the children were able to visit with each other. About 1923, Calvin and Nellie moved back to Massachusetts with the children and continued to raise a family of thirteen children. Calvin enjoyed his hobby of making cribbage boards.

Calvin died on September 9, 1949 in Watertown and is buried in the Ridgelawn Cemetery, Watertown, Middlesex County. After his death, Nellie married second in 1964 in Tucson, Pima County, Arizona, Ernest S. Henley who died on April 4, 1979 in Watertown. Nellie died on July 16, 1987, age 91, at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Brighton, Massachusetts and is buried in the Ridgelawn Cemetery.

Born on November 21, 1898 in Meridian, Ada County, Idaho. While a senior at Meridian High School, Cassie taught math for several weeks until the regular teacher recovered from a lengthy illness. After graduation she began a teaching career in Mink Creek, Idaho that was cut short by the flu epidemic of 1919-20. She returned home to Meridian where she met the Rev. Carman E. Mell who was part of an evangelistic team holding meetings there.

Cassie is listed in the 1920 Federal Census in Meridian Village, Ada County, Idaho, as a school teacher, living with her parents. She married on September 1, 1920 at the home of her parents in Meridian, Rev. Carman Edward Mell, born on September 19, 1894 in Bronaugh, Vernon County, Missouri, son of Charles Edward Mell and Eliza Rebecca Stricklin. For the next fifty years she shared the work of her husband's pastorates in Washington, Oregon, Kansas, California and Idaho. While in California, she worked as an assistant dietitian at a county hospital for several years and served on many church boards in Washington state. She was past president of both Church Women United and Christian Women's Fellowship. She and her husband spent their last pastorate at the First Christian Church in Moscow, Idaho before settling in Spokane, Washington. He performed interim pastorate work at several churches in the northwest, including Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Hoguiam, Washington and Colville, Washington. She was an active member of the North Hill Christian Church in Spokane.

Rev. Mell died on December 28, 1971 in Spokane, Spokane County, Washington. Cassie died on November 21, 1996 in Spokane. Both are buried in Riverside Memorial Park in Spokane.

X-3-11 Chester Irving PALMER (William,[IX-23-7] Martin,[8] Jacob,[7] Jacob,[6] Jacob,[5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on March 1, 1894 in Meridian, Ada County, Idaho. He received his education in the local schools in Meridian and graduated with the first graduating class of the Meridian Standard High School in 1912 with five other graduates.

Prior to WW I he was a member of the Government Reclamation Service Engineers as a surveyor, but when the U.S. entered the war, he responded to the call of duty and volunteered for service. On December 10, 1917, he was sent to Fort Douglas, Utah. From there he was transferred to Camp Devens, Massachusetts, and embarked overseas on June 19, 1918, landing at Brest, France on July 5th. He was assigned to the 29th Engineers and was sent to Langres, where he did detail work for a time and was then sent to St. Mangie to the Flash and Sound Ranging School. From there he proceeded to the Toul Sector and it was not long before he was in action on September 12, 1918, when the St. Mihiel drive was launched. He sustained a scalp wound in action and also was exposed to Mustard Gas which damaged the skin pigments of his arms and hands. He stated that the Germans never had a chance after the battle of Chateau Thierry, in which the Americans entered actively into the fight and from that time kept the enemy on the run. Just before sailing for home, he was transferred to Company "C", 74th Engineers, A.E.F. (American Expeditionary Force). and later was honorably discharged from the United States Army at Fort D.A. Russell, Wyoming on March 23, 1919, as a First Class Private.

He is listed in the 1920 Federal Census in White Bird Precinct, Idaho County, Idaho, as a surveyor for the state highway. He is also listed as an unmarried boarder.

Chester married on September 30, 1922 in Evanston, Uinta County, Wyoming, Grace Margaret Somers, born on June 24, 1901 in Fossil, Lincoln County, Wyoming, daughter of Wesley Armstrong Somers and Mary Margaret Lewis.

From 1926 to 1931, he was employed as a civil engineer and land surveyor for Los Angeles County Road Department. From 1932 to 1962, he was employed by the State of California, Division Highways. He conducted and participated in the original surveys of many of the key coastal mountain roads which connect the Pacific Coast Highway to the San Fernando Valley. He was also directly involved in the location and construction of the scenic and famous San Simeon-Carmel Highway No. 1, south of Carmel, California, which borders the Pacific Ocean.

Immediately following WW II, he acted as resident construction engineer on many of the metropolitan Los Angeles area freeways which were among the very first built in the nation. Chester was a member of the Masonic Lodge # 33, AF & AM for 50 years and attained the position of a 32nd Degree Mason.

Chester died on February 22, 1978 in Irvine, Orange County, California. His wife, Grace, died a few years earlier on November 3, 1970 in Panorama City, Los Angeles County, California.

X-4-4 Dick Dean PALMER (William,[IX-23-6] Adoniram,[8] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on September 22, 1898 in Wheatland, Laramie County, Wyoming. During World War I, he served in the U.S. Army and was sent to Europe. He was assigned to the 10th Field Artillery of the 3rd Infantry Division and saw action during the Champagne-Marne Defensive, the Aisne-Marne Offensive, the St. Michiel Offensive, the Meuse-Argonne Offensive and Chateau Thierry. He was a highly decorated soldier, receiving the Silver Star Decoration, World War I Victory Medal and the Order of the Purple Heart. The government of France honored him for his participation in the Battle of the Marne. He was cited for gallantry in action and recommended for the Distinguished Service Cross and the Croix de Guerre. Although World War I ended on November 11, 1918, he didn't arrive home until September 3, 1919. During that time period he and his outfit escorted the Germans out of France all the way to Koblenz, Germany, arriving there on December 17, 1918, in a snowstorm. Dick recalled the times when the American soldiers "unofficially" crossed the Rhine River to watch ball games when officially they never crossed the Rhine.

Dick had the distinction of becoming a life member of the American Legion while still overseas in France. The fee was 5 francs, about the equivalent of one dollar. He was also a life member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Dick married first, on December 3, 1924 in St. Paul, Minnesota, Gertrude Stevenson. She died in June 1925 in Wheatland as a result of a ruptured appendix and was buried in the Wheatland Cemetery. In 1926 her body was exhumed at the request of her mother and reburied in Northfield, Minnesota. He moved to Northfield in 1926. Dick married second, on May 29, 1926 in Mohall, Renville County, North Dakota, Elvina Jorgine Stone, born on September 28, 1903 in Mohall, daughter of Oscar Christian Stone and Carrie Thilda Jorgensen.

On April 29, 1989, Dick was presented with a certificate commemorating his 70 years of continuous membership in the American Legion. The presentation was made by the American Legion Post # 40 in Cut Bank, Montana by the Post Chaplain, Ray Rimel. On November 11, 1993, Dick was presented with the 75th Anniversary Medal of World War I by Glen Winterrowd, commander of the local VFW Post # 6104 in Cut Bank in the presence of his son, Sherwin Palmer, past commander.

Dick died on April 27, 1995 in Cut Bank. Elvina died on September 23, 1996 in Cut Bank. Both are buried in the Crown Hill Cemetery in Cut Bank.

X-7-2 George Almond PALMER (Carl,[IX-3-2] Joseph,[8] Samuel,[7] Joseph,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on December 18, 1907 in Etna, Whitley County, Indiana. He received his education in the Etna Elementary School and the three year Etna High School. He graduated from Columbia City High School in 1925 and was a 1929 graduate of DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana. He received his Master's Degree in History from the University of Minnesota in June 1932. He taught school in Hammond, Indiana for one year.

In June 1933, following a recommendation by one of his professors at the University of Minnesota, George received word from the National Park Service in Washington, D. C. of a job offer as a historical technician for three months. He accepted the job offer and eventually remained with the National Park Service until his retirement in 1975. During his years of service with the National Park Service, his first work was researching and studying the history of the Civil War Battlefields with his office located at Spottsylvania National Military Park in Fredericksburg, Virginia. From 1934 to 1935 and again from 1937 to 1945, he was the first superintendent of the Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island, New York. From 1935 to 1937, he was superintendent at Fort McHenry in Baltimore Harbor, Maryland where he met his wife to be.

George married on August 9, 1936 in Annapolis, Arundel County, Maryland, Janet Louise Brisson, born on August 19, 1908 in Haverhill, Essex County, Massachusetts, daughter of Frank Z. Brisson and Jennie Wallace Buckley.

In 1945, he was transferred to Hyde Park, New York where he became the first Park Superintendent of the home and library of Franklin Delano Roosevelt National Historic Site, and the Historic Vanderbilt Mansion. He held that position until 1955, when he became the Associate Regional Director of the National Park Service Regional Office in Philadelphia and held that position until his retirement in 1973 as the Deputy Regional Director. After 1973, he edited and produced the Bicentennial Daybook, 1774-1776, and then conducted an oral history project on the Bicentennial at Independence National Historical Park. He also prepared an inventory and guide to archives on the CCC in the national parks. In 1956, he and his family removed to Collingswood, Camden County, New Jersey. In 1983, he was appointed Borough Historian and is credited with the listing of three Borough houses on state and national historic registers.

George was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was a member of the American society of Public Administration. He was an active member of the Parent-Teacher Association of Hyde Park, New York and Collingswood, New Jersey. For several years he was chairman of the Recreation Committee of the town of Hyde Park and also chairman of the Environmental Commission in Collingswood. In June 1986, George, his younger brother, Lewis Eugene and his first cousin, Pansy May Curtis, reunited in Albion, Noble County, Indiana for the last time. George became blind in his later years, but he could still think clearly and remembered everything he ever knew.

Janet died on July 22, 1967 in Collingswood and George died on August 2, 1988 in Collingswood as a result of a heart attack. Both are buried in the Elmwood Cemetery in Bradford, Essex County, Massachusetts.

X-7-6 George Montgomery PALMER (William,[IX-23-12] John,[8] Amos,[7] Benjamin,[6] William,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on July 16, 1880 in Mankato, Blue Earth County, Minnesota. George spent his childhood years in Mankato and received his education in the Mankato schools.

At the outbreak of the Spanish-American War, George enlisted in the U.S. Army and served with Company "K", 15th Regiment, Minnesota Infantry. During this time he contracted and became critically ill with typhoid fever. Following his recuperation from the illness he was returned to active duty and was transferred to Company 6, Signal Corps, 2nd Army. He served in this capacity until the end of the war and was mustered out of service.

Following his army service, George entered dental school. Upon completion of his academic pursuits, he engaged into an active dental practice, opening his office in Crookston, Minnesota. He remained in Crookston for a couple of years and then moved to Bemidji, Beltrami County, Minnesota.

George married on November 25, 1903, Mabel F. Celleyham, born about 1880 in Missouri, daughter of Clara A. Celleyham, who was born in Ohio. Clara's husband was born in Canada. When the United States became involved in World War I in 1917, George again felt the call of patriotic duty. He took a leave of absence from his dental practice and served with the Y.M.C.A. in France. Following the war, George returned to his dental office in Bemidji, where he continued a very successful practice until his death in 1940.

He is listed in the 1920 Federal Census in Bemidji, as a dentist, living at 1005 Lake Boulevard with his wife Mabel, age 39 and children, Floy A., age 14 and Helen Palmer, age 7. Also listed in the same household is Clara A. Celleghand or Celleyham, age 67, mother of Mabel F. Palmer.

Born on November 2, 1887 at the family farm in Geuda Springs, Bolton Township, Cowley County, Kansas. She graduated from Kansas State University and became a school teacher early in life and eventually was teaching at college level. She attended the University of California at Los Angeles and obtained a master's degree in home economics. She taught home economics at Salinas Junior College in Salinas, California for approximately 30 years, serving as head of the department. While in Stanislaus County, California she also worked with the Home Extension Service of the University of California, guiding women of rural families in all phases of homemaking, child care and nutrition. In 1952 she taught briefly at Compton College in Compton, California.

She married on June 6, 1914, William Clyde Baxter and was residing in Bartlesville, Oklahoma in 1915. William died on November 7, 1918 in Thayer, Neosho County, Kansas, as a result of influenza and pneumonia. She has been recognized as the organizer of the first Girl Scout Troop in Oklahoma shortly after her marriage in 1914. She corresponded with Juliette Low of Georgia and received information on Girl Scouting. She is also credited with organizing the first Girl Scout Troop in California after she and 20 little girls gathered at her home in Lynwood in 1920. In 1964 she was sent as a delegate from California to the Girl Scout National Convention in Florida, at which time she was honored and presented with a 50 year pin for her work in the Girl Scout movement. She was active in Girl Scout work in the East San Gabriel Valley Council (later known as the Spanish Trails Girl Scout Council); the American Association of University Women; the Business and Professional Women's Club; the American Teachers Association; the Retired Teachers Association and the Newcomers Club.

After her retirement in 1950 she traveled extensively throughout the United States from October 1950 to June 1951 visiting with relatives in Arizona, Kansas, Texas, Florida, North Carolina, Virginia, Wash DC, New York, Quebec, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Missouri, Ohio and California. She was the author of The Palmer Family which she prepared about August 1952. During the latter part of 1955 and early 1956 she had the opportunity to travel around the world visiting such places as Hawaii, Tokyo, Hong Kong, Jakarta, Bangkok, Calcutta, Rangoon, Karachi in Pakistan, Beirut, Bethlehem, Jerusalem, Damascus, Cairo and Rome. She resided at 3659 Josephine Street, Lynwood, California in the Los Angeles area most of her life.

X-11-1 Katherine Leslie "Kathie" PALMER (Russell,[IX-18-7] Leslie,[8] Christopher,[7] Benjamin,[6] Benjamin,[5] Jonathan,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on October 7, 1942 in Plymouth, Grafton County, New Hampshire. She received her early education in the public schools in Plymouth, graduating from Plymouth High School in 1957. She attended the Northfield School for Girls in East Northfield, Massachusetts from 1957 to 1959; Colby Sawyer College in New London, New Hampshire from 1959 to 1961 and Radcliffe Secretarial School in Cambridge, Massachusetts in 1961.

Kathie was employed as a secretary for the Department of Nero/Astro of MIT from 1961-1963; Guggenheim Nero Lab of Cal Tech from 1963-1966; Von Karman Inst. for Fluid Dynamics of Brussels from 1964-1965 and the Snoqualmie United Methodist Church in Washington from 1975-1980. She was also a receptionist for the Billy Graham Crusade and assistant to the Crusade Director in 1991. She is currently self employed as a special events coordinator and is a speaker for various parachurch organizations along with PR work.

She has been a leader in the 4-H Club from 1974-1979; member of the Snoqualmie Juvenile Conference Committee from 1980-1990 and area chairperson for the Republican Party from 1990-1993. She is currently a member of the Executive Council, March for Jesus of Seattle, Washington; member of the Board of Directors, Pacific Trail Association and the Back Country Horsemen of Washington. she is also a State Coordinator for the National Day of Prayer.

One of the most outstanding achievements of Kathie's career was a 2,638 mile long trek by horseback along the crest of the mountain range that stretches from Mexico to Canada. She began her ride on April 29, 1996 at Lake Morena, California with her partner, Ben York, president of the Pacific Crest Trail Association. The pair made their way north along the Pacific Crest Trail, through the Mojave Desert to the mountaintops of the Sierras in California and the Cascades in Oregon and Washington. The five month long trip was sponsored by Rhema Ministries International, Inc. in Sacramento, California and took almost two years of planning.

Kathie and Ben had traveled 917 miles into their journey to Layman Meadow in Yosemite Park when disaster struck. Her horse, "Jack", an Arabian gelding, had become injured, resulting in a bad cut on the animal's rear leg. The horse lost his footing on the trail and plummeted to a precarious ledge below the trail. Kathie and Ben decided to camp for the night. The next morning, she found that Jack had died in a creek. Yosemite Park regulations prohibits the removal of dead animals and subsequently an explosives expert was flown in by helicopter the following day. About 50 pounds of dynamite was attached to the animals remains and the carcass was destroyed. They continued on their journey riding into Washington in early August and completed their journey in late September at the Canadian border.

She married on September 8, 1963 in Plymouth, New Hampshire, Philip Earl Cassady, Ph.D., born on September 8, 1940 in Springfield, Hampden County, Massachusetts, son of Julian Cassady and Vivian Guindon. Dr. Cassady is nationally and internationally recognized as an authority in the fields of high power lasers, aero-optics, laser radar, remote sensing and hypersonic flow diagnostics. He is a council member of the International Center for Aerophysics Studies in the Russian Academy of Sciences and a member of the MIT Educational Council. He serves on the Publications Committee and the Lasers and Plasmadynamics Committee of the American Institute of Aeronautrics and Astronautics. He was recently named a Technical Fellow of the Boeing Company in recognition of his exceptional professional expertise and performance as an outstanding member of the national and international engineering and scientific community.

Kathie and Philip currently reside on the Stillwater Farm in Snoqualmie, Washington. 1998.

X-18-16 Roy Kenyon PALMER (Charles,[IX-3-17] Joel,[8] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on January 26, 1889 in Golden, Jefferson County, Colorado. Roy spent his childhood years on the family farm in Golden and enjoyed riding horses. He was active in local rodeos and was a very talented horseman. As a result of his talented horsemanship, he signed on with the Buffalo Bill Western Show on March 1, 1909, which was sponsored by Earl B. Gandy of London, England. He had the opportunity to travel and perform with the show which included a tour to England in 1909 to appear and perform before the King and Queen of England.

Roy enjoyed telling stories of his experiences with the Buffalo Bill troupe. One in particular was at a banquet, honoring the Wild West Show which was attended by the King. A servant stood behind each person with trays of food and every time someone took a bite, the servant would put more food on their plates. The same with the champagne, every time someone took a drink, their glasses were refilled. Roy did not drink, but he laughed and said, "when everyone finally left the table, there were a lot of drunken cowboys and Indians". When they walked down the streets of London, some of the English people would run from the Indians.

After his contract expired with the Wild West Show, he lived in Golden for a short time. He is listed in the 1910 Federal Census in Precinct 10 of Golden, as a laborer in the local smelter, age 21, living in the household of his parents. Roy and his friend, Roy Petrie, went west on horseback and worked on ranches as they traveled. Upon arriving in California, Roy got a job breaking horses for the western movie star, William Surrey Hart and also had the opportunity to appear in some of the old western silent movies.

He went to Canada to look for work and it was there he met his future wife. He married on June 3, 1916 in Ponoko, Alberta, Canada, Effie Lawson Irving, born on February 5, 1891 in Kenora, Kenora County, Ontario, Canada. Her parents were from Scotland and was orphaned when she was nine years old. Effie was employed at the Post Office at the time of marriage. After their first child was born in 1920, Roy and his family moved to Redondo Beach, Los Angeles County, California about October 1920 to be near his parents. He was employed with various lumber companies for many years and also worked for the Works Progress Administration (WPA). In 1935, after the death of his mother, he and his family moved to Walteria, Los Angeles County into the home of his parents after his father returned to Colorado to bury his wife in Golden.

Roy was active in the local community affairs which included being the president of the Walteria Civic Organization. He was also instrumental in establishing the Walteria Park. He became quite an entertainer by playing various musical instruments, including a mandolin which he owned. He enjoyed being master of ceremonies at various programs and loved to put on plays and direct them, including acting in them for various organizations. He also enjoyed singing and often led in community singing. His favorite song was "The More We Get Together".

Roy died on January 7, 1945 in Torrance, Los Angeles County, California as a result of a massive heart attack. Effie died on August 18, 1958 in Los Angeles. Both are buried in the Pacific Crest Cemetery in Redondo Beach, California.

X-23-6 Will "Bill" Irving PALMER (William,[IX-23-6] Adoniram,[8] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on October 26, 1889 in Blue Rapids, Marshall County, Kansas. About 1890, as a baby, he went with his parents to Gering, Scotts Bluff County, Nebraska and later went with his parents to Wheatland, Laramie County, Wyoming in March of 1897. He received his childhood education in and around Wheatland until his parents moved up in Luman Creek (now known as Palmer Canyon) in 1905. In 1912, he and his father along with Fred Ringrose, built the road in Palmer Canyon. They kept an account of the expenses for equipment and dynamite and operated the completed road as a toll road until the expenses had been reimbursed. The road was in use until 1952 when heavy rains washed it out. In 1913, he worked for Jake McGill in the Laramie Plains where he herded cattle and sheep, and cut and harvested hay. In 1914, he and his father carried the mail from Wheatland to Owen and on one occasion he was seriously hurt with a broken knee cap as a result of a run-away team on Van Hill Road. In August 1916, he filed for a 320 acre homestead on Duck Creek Flats on the plains. During the fall he sawed lumber at his father's saw mill in Palmer Canyon and hauled it to his homestead to build a house and barn. In the fall of 1919, he worked in the oil fields at McFadden, Carbon County, Wyoming in a machine shop in order to earn money for the purchase of some Hereford cattle. Unfortunately, the banker, Mr. Butler, absconded with all the money.

He married on September 22, 1922 in McFadden, Rose Dorothy Burri, born on August 28, 1900 in Dunlap, Morris County, Kansas, daughter of Gottleib Burri and Karoline Klemm. Rose was a school teacher at the time of marriage. In 1924, Will and Rose moved to their homestead in the Wheatland area and filed for an additional 320 acres. They also expanded their homestead by buying out discouraged homesteaders, Herb Ambler and Archie Gibbs. In 1946, he was to enlarge his ranch again when the Swan Company sold off their land. In 1948, he built a house and barn on what he called his winter range in order to be near his cattle. He built a shop, sheds, garage, grainery and barn. In 1953, electricity was finally installed on the ranch.

Will was a master of both woodworking and wood carving which he enjoyed while passing the time in the winter isolation of his ranch. One of his specialties in woodworking was the creation of novel and unique effects in inlaid wood designs. He was an active member in the Masonic organization for fifty years and was Past Master of the Wheatland Chapter No. 16, F. & A. M. He retired from ranching in 1971 and moved to Wheatland.

Rose died on April 9, 1981 at the Presbyterian Hospital in Denver, Colorado. Will died on November 15, 1981 in Wheatland, Platte County, Wyoming. Both are buried in the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland.

X-23-8 William Ellsworth PALMER (William,[IX-23-12] John,[8] Amos,[7] Benjamin,[6] William,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on December 3, 1874 in Money Creek Valley, West Newton Township, Nicollet County, Minnesota. In 1876, he went with his parents to Mankato, Blue Earth County, Minnesota where they resided at 712 North Fifth Street. He received his education in the Franklin and Mankato schools and upon completion of his education he began to learn the trade of a jeweler with Mr. C.D. Taylor of Mankato. He remained in that capacity until he had perfected his trade in 1893.

William went west to Helena and Missoula, Montana and also Wallace, Idaho to pursue his chosen occupation as a jeweler. The failure of this health caused him to relinquish his employment and he returned to Mankato. As soon as he was able to resume work, he secured a position as foreman with C.D. Taylor of Mankato.

William married first on April 10, 1902, Emma Krieg, born on September 19, 1878, daughter of Albrecth Krieg and Anna Maria Maurer. She died on August 21, 1931 and is buried in the Glenwood Cemetery in Mankato.

In 1905, after the death of C.D. Taylor, William and his brother Erv, formed a partnership and purchased the former C.D. Taylor jewelry store. They remodeled and enlarged the store which was located at 311 South Front Street in Mankato. (see X-1-8)

William and Erv resolved their partnership in 1910, but William continued to operate the store in Mankato until about 1930. He then became employed with the Hubbard Milling Company in such positions as salesman, packer and sweeper. He married second on August 3, 1937, Minnie Krieg, born on January 12, 1875.

William was a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and served on the school board at the time the Union School was built in Mankato.

William died on September 11, 1946 at the farm home of Edward Krieg in Beauford Township, Blue Earth County and is buried in the Glenwood Cemetery in Mankato. His widow Minnie died on November 6, 1970 and is also buried in the Glenwood Cemetery.

XI-3-1 Calvin Alonzo PALMER (Calvin,[X-3-1] Frank,[9] George,[8] Aaron,[7] Samuel,[6] Joseph,[5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William[1])

Born on December 6, 1910 in Newton, Middlesex County, Massachusetts. Calvin was almost eight years old when his mother died of influenza on October 10, 1918. After her death, Calvin, his brothers and sister were cared for by their grandmother Emma Carron (McDonald) Palmer until April 1919 when the entire family removed to Bridgewater, Lunenberg County, Nova Scotia, Canada.

He later moved to Petite Riviere with the family where his father worked as an electrician. After World War I, work was scarce and his father was unemployed often. The family then moved to New Cumberland. About 1923, the family returned to West Newton, Massachusetts with the exception of Calvin and his brother Kenneth. Later in 1923, they rejoined their family in West Newton. About 1924, the family moved to Cambridge, Middlesex County. In late 1925, Calvin, his brother Russell and sister Lois were living apart from the family and attended the Davis and Pierce Grammar Schools in West Newton.

At age 15, Calvin started out on his own, working at the Cambridge Electric Light Company, beginning September 28, 1925 and continued there until his retirement on December 31, 1973. He started work as an office boy and after attending night school at Rindge Technical High School, Franklin Union Institute and Lowell Institute, he eventually became an Electrical Distribution Superintendent.

Calvin married first, on October 20, 1934 in Cambridge, Louise Easton Taylor, born on June 20, 1911 in Cambridge, daughter of Frederick J. Taylor and Louise Clara Easton. They resided in Belmont, Middlesex County. Louise died on April 28, 1961 in Cambridge as result of cancer.

Calvin married second, on November 9, 1963, Ethel Frances Farrington, born on July 11, 1912 in Somerville, Middlesex County, daughter of Charles Warren Farrington and Gertrude Henry. They moved to Bedford, Middlesex County after marriage and resided there until 1974 when they moved to East Sandwich, Barnstable County, Massachusetts on Cape Cod Bay. They were involved in volunteer work at their church and in the community. Ethel died on April 22, 1985 in East Sandwich.

After Ethel's death, Calvin has had the good fortune of traveling to England, Europe, Alaska, Hawaii and numerous locations in the United States with his daughter Carolyn and son-in-law "Lee" Tirrell. From 1987 to 1997, he has resided six months of the year in Sun City Center, Hillsborough County, Florida during the winter months and the remainder of the year in East Sandwich. He currently resides with his daughter, Carolyn and son-in-law, Lee, in Bedford, Massachusetts, 1998.

XI-18-2 Ralph Kenyon PALMER (Roy,[X-18-16] Charles,[9] Joel,[8] William,[7] Simon,[6] Jonathan,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on April 27, 1920 in Bassano, Alberta, Canada. He went with his parents to Redondo Beach, California about October 1920 where he lived until 1935 when he moved with his parents to Walteria, California. He graduated from Narbonne High School in Lomita, California. In 1939 while in high school, he excelled in the 100 and 220 yard hurdles, earning several trophies for the high school.

Ralph served in the Civilian Conservation Corps (C.C.C.) in Ketchaken, Alaska from October 1939 to March 1941. In October 1941 he was drafted into the U. S. Army for a period of one year and took his basic training at Aberdeen, Maryland for ordinance training. He was then sent to Fort Benning, Georgia and Camp Walters, Texas. When World War II broke out his enlistment was automatically extended. In 1943 he was sent to parachute jump school in Fort Benning and was later sent to Europe in 1944, assigned to Company "G", 502nd Parachute Infantry Regiment of the 101st Airborne Division until the end of the war. The 101st was deactivated and he was assigned to Company "G", 504th Parachute Infantry Regiment of the 82nd Airborne Division. He was sent to England for boarding on the Queen Mary for the return trip home and eventual discharge in January 1946.

He married first, on January 17, 1946, Nell "Nellie" Lavinia Gentine, born about 1927, probably in Coffieville, California, daughter of Elizabeth Gentine. The marriage ended in divorce in July 1955.

Ralph enlisted for three years in the U.S. Army in January 1948 with the 6th Army Recruiting Service at Fort MacArthur in San Pedro, California. He received orders for transfer to Korea in 1951 but was detained in Tokyo, Japan for about four months before being sent to Seoul, Korea. While in Korea he participated in 97 combat missions and also in 122 training and practice parachute jumps. In 1954 he returned to the states for recruiting duty in Los Angeles, California. In early 1955, he attended the language school at Monterey, California for a Korean language course which lasted 47 weeks. He was then transferred to Fort Bragg and assigned to the 519th Military Intelligence Group and shortly thereafter was assigned to the 77th Special Forces Group (Green Berets) at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

He married second, on January 19, 1957 at Fort Bragg, June Elizabeth Ramsey, born on August 5, 1929 in Lynchburg, Campbell County, Virginia, daughter of Harold Madison Ramsey and Hallie Evelyn Magann. She was previously married to McCoy Jackson Brooks. In 1963 he was transferred to Sagami, Japan with the 548th Quartermaster Company (Airborne) until July 1967. He was transferred to Fort Campbell, Kentucky as First Sergeant of the Parachute Maintenance Company of the 101st Airborne Division until November 1967 when he was sent to Viet Nam with the 101st at Bien Hoa Airbase near Saigon until November 1968. He was sent to the states and was assigned to the Bellwood Defense Depot in Richmond, Virginia until his retirement from the U. S. Army on October 1, 1970. During his career in the Army, while at Fort Bragg, he was a member of the U. S. Army Parachute Team from 1959 to 1963. He performed over 800 jumps with the team, known as "The Golden Knights". He was also a member of the U. S. Army Pistol Team.

After retirement he was employed with the Virginia Police Department until 1985 when he became employed as a Security Officer with the City of Richmond and later with Pinkerton Security Service in Chesterfield County, Virginia. He was a volunteer with the Richmond Rescue Squad from 1970 to 1977 and was also employed with the Virginia Alcohol Beverage Control Board from 1993 until March 1995.

Ralph has since retired and he and his wife currently reside in Richmond, 1997.

XI-18-10 Rita Glidden PALMER (Charles,[X-3-6] Walter,[9] Daniel,[8] Jonathan,[7] Samuel,[6] Joseph, [5] Christopher,[4] Joseph,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on February 23, 1918 in Exeter, New Hampshire. Rita spent her childhood years in Hampton, New Hampshire. She graduated from the Hampton Academy in 1936 and later attended the New England Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing in Boston, Massachusetts, graduating in 1939. Following her graduation, she worked at the Palmer Memorial Hospital and the Baker Clinic in Boston for two years. The Palmer Memorial Hospital, originally located in Roxbury, Massachusetts, was named in memory of Jennie Christine Palmer, wife of William Lincoln Palmer. (see William Lincoln Palmer, VIII-23-9)

On March 3, 1941, Rita enlisted in the Army as a nurse with the rank of Second Lieutenant and spent her first few months at Camp Edwards, Cape Cod, Massachusetts. On September 26, 1941, she and five other nurses left for California and on September 30th, departed San Francisco by ship to the Philippine Islands. They arrived in Manila on October 23rd and later after a few days were sent to Fort Stotsenberg near Clark Field, 60 miles north of Manila.

On December 8, 1941, during breakfast along with others, she heard on the radio of the bombing of Pearl Harbor. At noon the same day, the Japanese Air Force destroyed Clark Field. Rita and the other nurses experienced their first taste of war when they attended the wounded from Clark Field. Shortly before Christmas, after the patients were evacuated, Rita was moved to Manila on December 24th and two days later on the 26th was moved to Corregidor Island where she was housed in the smoke filled tunnels. She left Corregidor on February 5, 1942 for the Bataan Peninsula where their living quarters and hospital were out under the trees. On April 7th, she was moved from Bataan to Corregidor after being wounded the same day from falling bombs on the hospital. She and another nurse, First Lieutenant Rosemary Hogan of Chattanooga, Oklahoma, were showered with shrapnel from the bombs. She suffered wounds to the face, right arm and leg.

On April 20th, 1942, Rita was part of a group of nurses representing the Army Nurse Corps during the observance of Patriots Day, at an informal meeting within the beleaguered fortress of Corregidor. In a letter, dated April 25th, to her parents, Rita stated that she had been decorated with the "Order of the Purple Heart Medal" as a result of her wounds on April 7th. It was decided later that she and ten other nurses along with some high ranking Army and Naval officers, one of whom was Gen. Seal and his wife, a civilian, Mrs. Virginia Grady and others, were to be flown to Australia on a Navy PBY plane. Four of the nurses were wounded and the others were considered too weak to withstand imprisonment by the Japanese. Some were thought to be emotionally unstable for prison conditions. During the evening of April 29th, just seven days before the fall of Corregidor to the Japanese Forces, they were moved to Lake Lanao in northern Mindanao and during the evening of April 30th as the plane was taxiing for take off, it struck some submerged rocks and was severely damaged. They made it to land and traveled around northern Mindanao on buses and any other transportation they could find. During this time, the Army and Naval officers were trying desperately to radio for help to no avail. On May 3rd, the group arrived at a small general hospital at Impalutau in the mountains of northern Mindanao where they were forced to surrender to the Japanese. After the fall of Corregidor, Rita was listed as "missing in action." It was thought that she and the others were on a friendly island somewhere in the Philippines after the plane wreck.

The group was detained at Impalutau until August 17th, when they were taken by a Japanese cargo ship to the Immaculate Conception Institute at Davao. They spent one week on board the ship. On September 5th, they were taken from Davao on a Japanese troop ship to Manila, arriving on September 9th. For the remainder of the war, she and the other nurses from Corregidor were reunited and interned with civilians at the Santo Tomas Camp in Manila. She was one of 68 nurses known as the "Angels of Bataan" interned at Santo Tomas. On February 3, 1945, they were liberated by a contingent of the 1st Cavalry Division which set off on a 70 mile mad dash deep into enemy territory well ahead of their main force. For a couple of days, during which the American troops gave up their food for the liberated civilians and nurses, they remained cut off from allied troops and the Japanese very nearly retook the camp. A number of people who had survived those years were killed.

Rita was later flown to Hickam Field, Hawaii where she spent her 26th birthday with her brother Ansell on February 23rd. On Saturday, February 24th, she and a group of other nurses left Honolulu for Hamilton Field, California. At a ceremony in the patio of the Letterman General Hospital, letters from President Franklin Delano Roosevelt and General George C. Marshall were presented to the group of nurses. President Roosevelt's letter read in part, "It gives me special pleasure to welcome you back to your native shores, and to express, on behalf of the people of the United States, the joy we feel at your deliverance from the hands of the enemy. It is a source of profound satisfaction that our efforts to accomplish your return have been successful. You have served valiantly in foreign lands and have suffered greatly. As your Commander-in-Chief, I take pride in your past achievements and express the thanks of a grateful nation for your services in combat and your steadfastness while prisoners of war. May God grant each of you happiness and an early return to health." All the nurses were decorated with the Bronze Star Medal.

Rita arrived home at Hampton in March 1945 and later went to the Air Evacuation School at Randolph Field in San Antonio, Texas with the idea of returning to Asia but Army regulations forbade this. In conjunction with the Bronze Star Medal and the Purple Heart Medal decorations, she was awarded the Philippine Defense Medal, American Campaign Medal, Philippine Liberation Medal, Asiatic Pacific Medal and the Presidential Unit Citation w/2 oak leaf clusters. After her discharge from the Army she went to Chicago to attend the Chicago University for two years. She married on July 10, 1947 in Chicago, Lloyd James of St. Paul, Minnesota. Lloyd was born on April 16, 1915 in St. Paul, son of Henry Clayton and Frances James. She and her family resided in West St. Paul, Minnesota for a number of years before moving to Stanley, Idaho in the beautiful Sawtooth Mountains. She was residing with her husband in Eagan, Minnesota as late as 1995.

XI-18-13 Col. Robert Stanley PALMER (Stanley,[X-19-5] Gustavus,[9] Isaac,[8] John,[7] Benjamin,[6] William,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on November 27, 1913 in Reno, Washoe County, Nevada. From 1930 to 1933 he attended the University of Nevada and completed the third year of his engineering course, and during the spring semester, was elected to Nu

Eta Epsilon, and the university engineering honor society for excellent scholarship. He was also a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity. In September 1933, he entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York as a result of being appointed by Congressman Samuel S. Areutz of Nevada. While attending West Point as a second year cadet, he was appointed sergeant in the cadet corps. As a senior cadet, he was appointed lieutenant of Company "A", the highest honors a West Point cadet can attain. He graduated from West Point in June 1937 and was commissioned second lieutenant as a engineer. He married on June 28, 1937 in Tazewell, Tazewell County, Virginia, Jean Dreyan Cecil, born on July 12, 1918, daughter of S. W. Cecil. He also received a master's degree in civil engineering at Cornell University in 1940.

In 1940 while stationed at Camp Claiborne, Louisiana, he was promoted to the rank of major. In December 1942 while stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina with the army engineers, he was promoted to lieutenant colonel. In early 1943 he was sent to North Africa, where he was awarded the Silver Star decoration for gallantry. As the commander of an airborne engineer battalion, he personally led his men on aggressive reconnaissance missions, seeking and destroying mine fields and road traps while under hostile artillery fire, scouting in advance of friendly forward units to locate destroyed bridges and prepare detours and safe lanes for infantry and artillery around or through every obstacle.

He also saw action in Sicily and Italy before participating in the D-Day Invasion of France in June 1944. He was assigned to the 82nd Airborne Engineering Division during the invasion, landing shortly after the first wave of infantrymen, and was captured by the Germans and held as a prisoner-of-war. He was reported missing in action at first but later was accounted for as a prisoner. After World War II, he was an engineer officer in Japan and Okinawa and later served on a military mission in Bolivia. He was highly decorated during his wartime service which included the Silver Star decoration, Bronze Star decoration and the Legion of Merit with Oak Leaf Clusters.

He retired from the army as a colonel and is currently residing in Fort Belvoir, Virginia, 1997.

XI-18-18 Russell "Russ" Irving PALMER (Calvin,X-3-1 Frank,9 George,8 Aaron,7 Samuel,6 Joseph,5 Christopher,4 Joseph,3 Christopher 2, William 1)

Born on May 5, 1907 in Worcester, Worcester County, Massachusetts. After the death of his mother in 1918, he went with his father and brothers, Calvin, Jr. and Kenneth, to Bridgewater, Nova Scotia, Canada to live with relatives. He later lived with his father and aunt Nellie May Corkum, who later became his step-mother, in 1919, at Mount Pleasant, Lunenburg County, Nova Scotia until about 1923 when the family moved back to West Newton, Massachusetts.

He married on August 25, 1931 in Waltham, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, Isabelle Imhoff, born on August 14, 1907 in Orono, Penobscot County, Maine, daughter of John Gilbert Imhoff and Bridget Doucet of Bathurst, New Brunswick, Canada.

He resided after marriage in Waltham, living first on Howard Street for about one year. He then resided at 60 Cutter Street until about 1936 when the family moved to 38 Bennett Street. The family resided there until 1942 and then moved to 26 Bennett Street and lived there until 1945. The family moved to 130 Willow Street where Russell died on October 18, 1948. He is buried in the Calvary Cemetery in Waltham.

He was a Master Electrician by trade after first enrolling through the Scranton, Pennsylvania Correspondence School. He was employed as an electrician with the Bay State Supply Company located at 133 Moody Street in Waltham during the early 1930's. He was later employed as an electrician with the McFarlane Company in Boston for a number of years prior to his death in 1948. Russell was a volunteer Civil Defense Warden during World War II. He was also a call fireman during the night hours as driver and operator of the Waltham Fire Department mobile lighting plant which was garaged at Fire Station House Engine No. 3 at 63 Willow Street in Waltham. He automatically responded to three alarm fires in the adjoining towns of Newton and Belmont and often answered special calls from other surrounding towns. He often served hot coffee, tea and hot chocolate to the firemen at the fire scenes. He enjoyed such hobbies as photography and woodworking. Isabelle is currently living in Glastonbury, Connecticut, 1998.

XII-10-1 Jacqueline "Jackie" Susan PALMER (Oscar,[XI-15-1] Ernest,[10] Oscar,[9] John,[8] Amos,[7] Benjamin,[6] William,[5] Christopher,[4] Samuel,[3] Christopher,[2] William [1])

Born on June 9, 1950 in Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas. She went with her parents to Houston, Texas about December 1950. She later went with her parents to Ponca City, Kay County, Oklahoma in 1959. She received the remainder of her childhood education in Ponca City, but a few months before graduation, she married first, on March 8, 1968 in Ponca City, Ronald Barry Frick.

After marriage, she and Ronald resided in Kansas City, Missouri where she completed her high school education via a correspondence course. She also took a year of junior college night courses while working full time. She was employed with an insurance adjusting firm as a rate clerk and later as a switchboard receptionist for a law firm. After securing a scholarship, she worked part-time as a file clerk, engraver of embossing seals and general "Girl-Friday" for a sign manufacturing company.

She attended and graduated from the University of Missouri at Kansas City with teacher certification and a degree in Biology. In July 1976, Jackie and Ronald were divorced and she joined the Peace Corps. She taught school in Belize City, Belize in Central America for one year. She had the opportunity of traveling in the Caribbean Islands, Mexico and the jungles of Guatemala. During her stay in Belize, she contracted a severe viral form of pinkeye, which resulted in her return to the United States for treatment and recuperation.

In 1977, she returned to Kansas City, Missouri where she taught general science in an inner city high school. In 1978, she moved to Santa Fe, New Mexico where she taught at two public schools. While in Santa Fe, she married second, on January 9, 1980, Phillip Hughes, a mechanic and artist. The marriage lasted only nine months and subsequently they were divorced in August, 1980. After her divorce, she remained in Santa Fe to teach biology, chemistry, physics and computer skills at two parochial schools, one for American Indians.

She enrolled in New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology in Socorro, New Mexico to complete a master's degree in science teaching. While in Socorro, she married third, on July 12, 1985, Myrth Jimmie Killingsworth, born on October 14, 1952 in Greenwood, Greenwood County, South Carolina. He was an English professor at the time of marriage who allowed Jackie to retain her maiden name. After marriage, they removed to Lubbock, Texas where she taught remedial science at the local junior college. Later, they removed to Memphis, Tennessee in 1986 where she completed a doctoral program in curriculum and instruction at Memphis State University. Jimmie took a job at Texas A & M University in College Station, Texas where Jackie also accepted a position there as a research associate Within two years, they moved to Round Rock, Texas where Jackie accepted a position in Austin, Texas, as senior training and technical assistant associate for an educational research laboratory. Jimmie continues making his ninety mile commute to College Station.

Jackie enjoys playing the country fiddle and often plays a variety of types of music with Jimmie, who plays the guitar, mandolin and banjo. They co-authored an award-winning book in 1991, "Ecospeak: Rhetoric and Environmental Politics in America", merging their personal and professional lives.

Jackie and Jimmie currently reside in Round Rock, Texas, 1997.

Born on January 11, 1948 in Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas. She went with her parents to Texas City, Texas in December 1950. In 1958, she went with her parents to Pensacola, Florida but later that same year she was on the move again with her parents to Houston, Texas. She stayed in Houston for awhile with her parents before moving to New Orleans where she remained for about two years. In 1960, she went with her parents to Ponca City, Kay County, Oklahoma where she completed her childhood education, graduating from Ponca City High School. She attended Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Judilee married on May 21, 1966 in Ponca City, Ronald J. Hays, born on August 14, 1947 in Watonga, Blaine County, Oklahoma. Ronald served in the United States Air Force and was stationed in Biloxi, Mississippi and later at Great Falls, Montana. About 1969, Judilee moved to Houston with her children while Ronald served a tour of duty in Viet Nam. Upon his return, he was assigned to Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, Colorado.

After his discharge, they moved to Stillwater, Oklahoma where she earned teaching certification and a Bachelors Degree in Spanish. She also taught a year of Spanish, English and Junior High Bible at Independence Christian School during the time Ronald was attending the Baptist Theological Seminary. After Ronald graduated from the seminary, they first moved to Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri, then to Rogers, Arkansas. Judilee attended classes at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville while Ronald served as pastor for a church in Highfill, Arkansas. She completed a masters degree in language from the University in 1984.

Ronald joined the U.S. Army as a chaplain and was assigned to Killeen, Texas where Judilee taught English as a second language for six months. She then took a position teaching Spanish at nearby Copperas Cove High School. In 1986, the family traveled to Germany where Ronald was assigned at an Army Post in Giessen. Judilee continued teaching English, World History and World Geography at the Giessen American High School which was operated by the United States Department of Defense. After three years in Germany, they returned to the states and spent a few months in New Jersey before she continued her teaching career in Copperas Cove, Texas.

In 1994, Ronald retired from the U.S. Army and earned a teaching certification and now teaches English and Social Studies to juvenile delinquents for the San Marcos' Boot Camp Program. Judilee continues to teach Spanish in Buda, Texas, 1997.

Nicknames of Common Usage

The following list of nicknames is by far a complete listing, nor a complete list of all the possible variations of spellings for any one nickname or its variants.

One should be alert to the possibility that a given name and a nickname might refer to the same individual in a family record. Also, one should be aware of the fact that at different times in a person's life there might well be variations of his given name or his nicknames. This could vary according to the type of record being made. A marriage certificate might say that the name is "Ebenezer'" but the census record of the same period could well say that his given name variation was "Eben."

Nicknames are tricky and often duplicated between various given names. Whenever a nickname is known to exist in this genealogy, an attempt has been made to identify and insert the nickname in quotes, thus Charles "Charlie" Palmer.

In some cases the nickname is completely unrelated to the given name and was accepted by the family members for whatever reason.

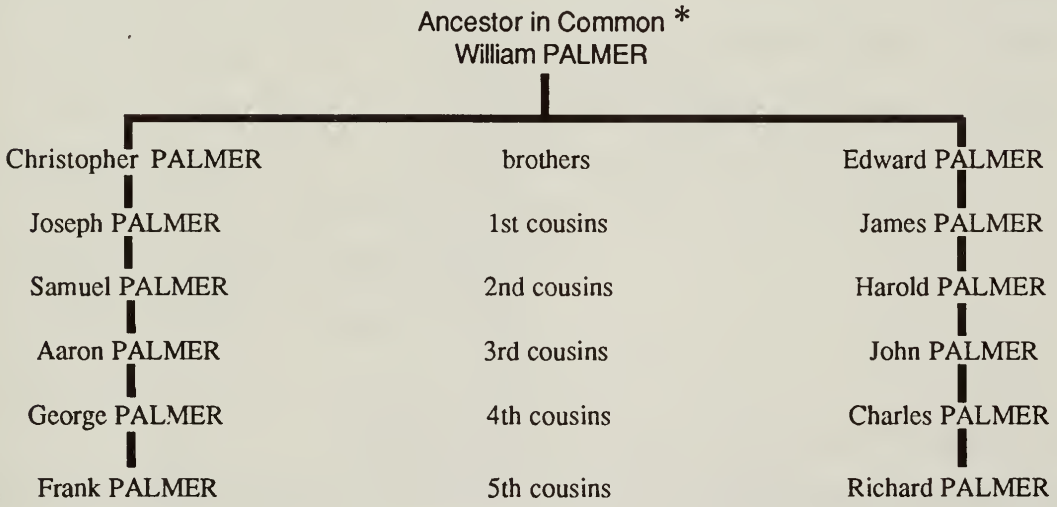
Finding Other Relatives

Having found the records of your children and of your parents and grandparents, etc., you can next very easily make a record of your cousins of various degrees, your uncles, aunts, etc. The following group of charts has been provided as a simplified method of finding your relationship to a known relative.

CHART 1



Explanation:

William PALMER, above, had two sons, Christopher and Edward. Christopher and Edward, both sons of William, are brothers.

Christopher had a son named Joseph; his brother Edward had a son named James. Joseph and James, whose fathers are brothers, are first cousins.

Joseph had a son named Samuel; James had a son named Harold. Samuel and Harold, whose fathers are first cousins, are second cousins.

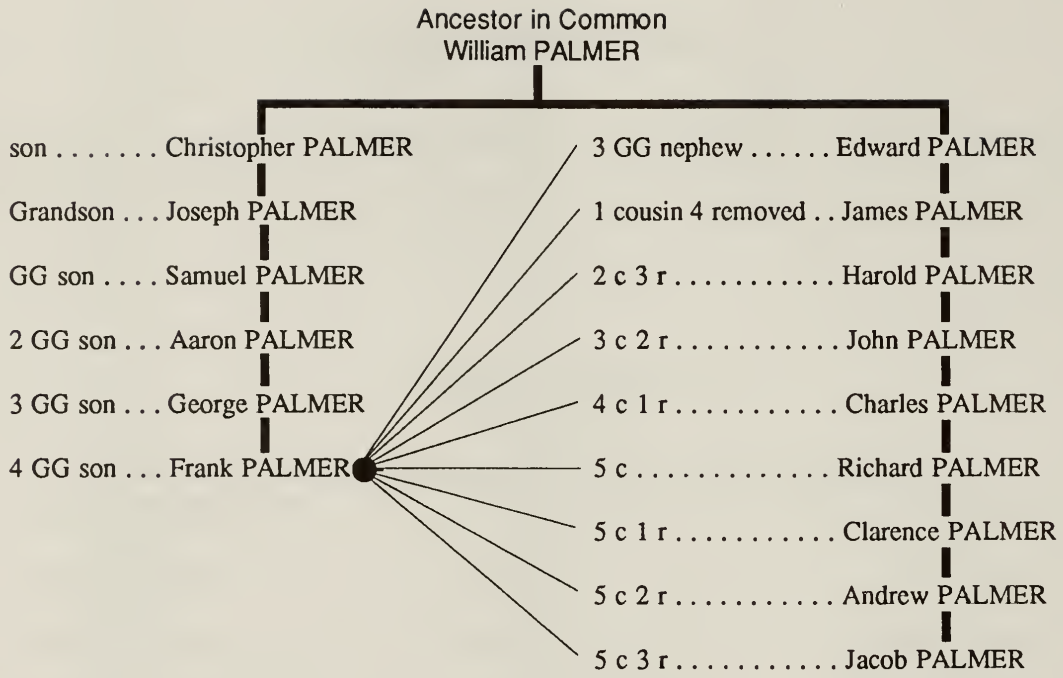
Samuel had a son named Aaron; Harold had a son named John. Aaron and John, whose fathers are second cousins, are third cousins.

If two persons are the same number of generations removed from the ancestor in common, they will be straight cousins, that is, there will be no "removed" status in their relationship.

If the persons are a different number of generations from the ancestor in common, then they will be removed in their relationship as cousins.

* An Ancestor in Common (or a common ancestor) is the person from whom you and another person are both descended; you both have this ancestor in common.

CHART 2



Relationship indicated is that of Frank PALMER to the person indicated.

In the example on the previous page, chart 1, locate Harold PALMER on the one side of the chart, and then locate Frank PALMER on the other side of the chart.
What is the relationship from this example of Harold PALMER to Frank PALMER ?
Harold PALMER is a second cousin three generations removed (2c3r) from Frank PALMER.
How can you know that ?

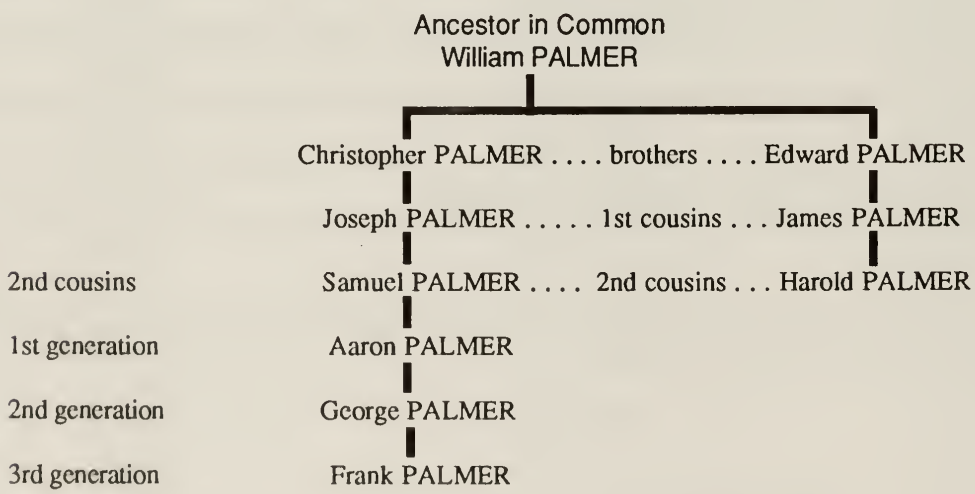
CHART 3



Harold PALMER is a second cousin to Samuel PALMER, and Frank PALMER is three generations removed from Samuel; therefore, Harold is a second cousin three times removed from Frank (2c3r).

Explanation:

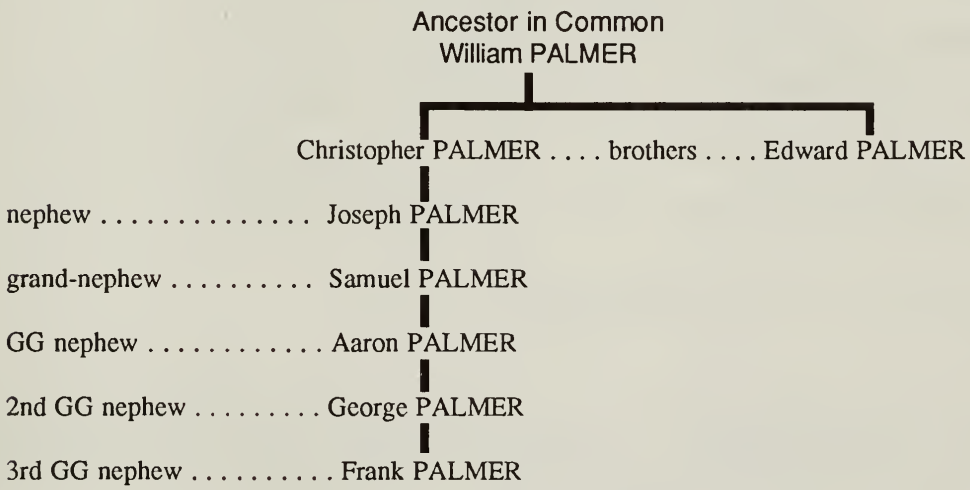
Come across on the straight cousin line, and then down the number of generations to find the removed part of the relationship.

The relationship of John PALMER to Frank PALMER as shown on chart 2, is third cousin twice removed. (3c2r)

Referring again to chart 2, the relationship of Frank PALMER to Edward PALMER is that Frank is a 3rd great grand-nephew to Edward.

In order to see this, take the chart apart, as shown on chart 4.

CHART 4



Relationship indicated is that of Frank PALMER to Edward PALMER.

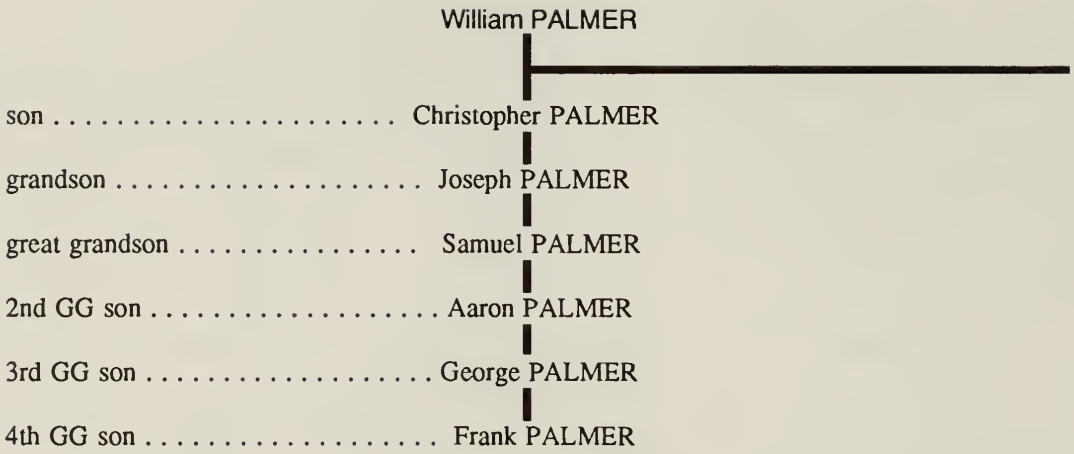
Explanation:

Note from chart 4 that Frank PALMER is a 3rd great grand-nephew of Edward PALMER. (Edward is a 3rd great grand-uncle to Frank). To trace this relationship, note: Christopher PALMER is a brother to Edward PALMER. Joseph PALMER is a nephew to Edward PALMER, because Joseph's father, Christopher, is a brother to Edward. Samuel PALMER is a grand-nephew to Edward PALMER, because his father, Joseph, is a nephew to Edward. Aaron PALMER is a great grand-nephew to Edward PALMER, because his father, Samuel, is a grand-nephew to Edward. George PALMER is a great great grand-nephew (2nd great grand-nephew) to Edward PALMER because his father, Aaron, is a great grand-nephew to Edward. Frank PALMER is great great great grand-nephew (3rd GG nephew) to Edward PALMER, because his father, George, is a great great grand-nephew to Edward PALMER.

Girls would be nieces and grand-nieces, etc., where boys are nephews.

Note from chart 2 that the relationship of Frank PALMER to William PALMER is 4th great grandson (4th GG son). Take the chart apart as shown on chart 5.

CHART 5



Relationship indicated is that of Frank PALMER to William PALMER.

Explanation:

Referring to chart 5, note: William PALMER is the beginning ancestor on this chart. Christopher PALMER is the son of William. Joseph is the grandson of William, because his father, Christopher, is the son of William. Samuel is the great grandson of William, because his father, Joseph, is the grandson of William. Aaron is the 2nd great grandson of William, because his father, Samuel, is the great grandson of William. George is the 3rd GG son of William, because his father, Aaron, is the 2nd GG son of William. Frank is the 4th GG son of William, because his father, George, is the 3rd GG son of William PALMER.

Christian or Given Names

Various spellings of Christian or given names have been accepted in family records, for a name is not necessarily of orthodox formation. Its essential purpose is the identification of an individual, and that is equally well accomplished whether William is spelled "Willie" or "Will" or "Willy" or with other modifications. Some names are consistently spelled at variance with the customary style. The family, for example, has always spelled "Mehetabel" with an "i" instead of the biblical "e" as the fourth letter and has never used the old form of "Mehetabeel."

In March 1776 the Continental Congress resolved that all persons who refused to sign the Association to defend the cause of the colonies should be disarmed. To put this resolve into effect, the New Hampshire Committee of Safety directed the local authorities, usually the selectmen, to have all adult males sign the Association and to report the names of those who refused to sign.

The resolve of the Continental Congress and the order in its behalf by the New Hampshire Committee of Safety are printed in full below.

ASSOCIATION TEST
COLONY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY
April 12th, 1776

In Order to carry the underwritten RESOLVE of the Hon'ble Continental CONGRESS into Execution, You are requested to desire all Males above Twenty One Years of Age (Lunaticks, Idiots, and Negroes excepted) to sign to the DECLARATION on this Paper; and when so done, to make Return hereof, together with the Name or Names of all who shall refuse to sign the same, to the GENERAL ASSEMBLY, or Committee of Safety of this Colony.

M. Weare, Chairman

In CONGRESS, March 14th, 1776

Resolved, That it be recommended to the several Assemblies, Conventions, and Councils, or Committees of Safety of the United Colonies, immediately to cause all Persons to be disarmed, within their Respective Colonies, who are notoriously disaffected to the Cause of AMERICA, Or who have not associated, and refuse to associate, to defend by ARMS, the United Colonies, against the Hostile Attempts of the British Fleets and Armies.

(COPY) Extract from the Minutes.

Charles Thompson, Sec'ry

In Consequence of the above Resolution, of the Hon. Continental CONGRESS, and to shew our Determination in joining our American Brethen, in defending the Lives, Liberties, and Properties of the Inhabitants of the UNITED COLONIES.

WE, the Subscribers, do hereby solemnly engage, and promise, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, at the Risque of our Lives and Fortunes, with ARMS, oppose the Hostile Proceedings of the British Fleets, and Armies, against the United American COLONIES.
